

DANIEL CHAPTER 8

Chapter 8

8:1 In the third year [538 BC] of the reign of king Belshazzar a vision appeared unto me, [even unto] me Daniel [about 88 years old], after that which appeared unto me at the first. [The king of Babylon had a royal palace at Shushan. Daniel, as minister of the state employed in the king's business, was in that place when he had this vision. In the days of Ahasuerus (Esther 1:1-2)]

8:2 And I saw in a vision; and it came to pass, when I saw, that I [was] at Shushan [Susa] [in] the palace, which [is] in the province of Elam [Southern modern Iran. Elam is the son of Shem- Gen 10:22]; and I saw in a vision, and I was by the river of Ulai.

8:3 Then I lifted up mine eyes, and saw, and, behold, there stood before the river a ram [Medo-Persia; vs 20] which had [two] horns: and the [two] horns [were] high; but one [was] higher [Persia] than the other [Medes], and the higher [Persia] came up last.

ACCORDING TO HIS WILL

8:4 I saw the ram [Medo-Persia; Dan 8:20; coming from the east. Iran is in the east.] pushing westward, and northward, and southward; so that no beasts might stand before him, neither [was there any] that could deliver out of his hand; but he did according to his will [Dan 11:3, 16, 36], and became great.

8:5 And as I was considering, behold, an he goat [Greece vs 21] came from the west [Greece lay west of Persia] on the face of the whole earth [swept everything before him; left nothing behind], and touched not the ground [Alexander moved with swiftness; ch 7] : and the goat [had] a notable horn [Alexander the great] between his eyes. [Persia is in the east (1Ki 4:30, 34). Palestine was the center point from which north, South, east and west were determined.]

OVERTHROW OF PERSIAN EMPIRE- BATTLE OF ARBELLA 331 BC-- VERSES 6 & 7

8:6 And he [Alexander the Great] came to the ram [Medo-Persia] that had [two] horns, which I had seen standing before the river, and ran unto him in the fury of his power.

8:7 And I saw him [Alexander the Great] come close unto the ram [Medo-Persia], and he [Alexander the Great] was moved with choler against him, and smote the ram [Medo-Persia], and brake his [Medo-Persia] two horns: and there was no power in the ram [Medo-Persia] to stand before him [Alexander the Great], but he cast him down to the ground, and stamped upon him [Medo-Persia]: and there was none that could deliver the ram [Medo-Persia] out of his [Alexander the Great] hand.

8:8 Therefore the he goat [Greece] waxed very great: and when he was strong, the great horn [Alexander the Great] was broken; and for it came up four notable ones [Alexander's 4 Generals: Lysimachus, Cassader, Ptolemy &

Vision of the RAM, HE GOAT and LITTLE HORN

A period of 2 years had passed since the vision recorded in Daniel Ch. 7. Daniel no longer dwelling in the capital of Babylon but in Shushan, Elam. Elam and media would join forces in the conquest of Babylon (Isa 13:17; 21:1-3)

Daniel is now some eighty years of age. The vision he refers to here is the vision of the seventh chapter, which he had in the first year of Belshazzar's reign.

VERSE 2

Persia was in the east (1Kings 4:29-34), Palestine was the directional center point of north, south, east & west. In verse 20 an interpretation of this symbol is given in plain language, once again, we see the bible interpreting itself: "the ram which thou saw having two horns are the kings of media and Persia". The higher came up last, this was Persia. At first, it was simply an ally of the Medes but later came to be the leading division of the empire. The Medo-Persian kingdom extended to the boundaries of the then-known world.

VERSE 7

In less than 20 years after Alexander's death, his kingdom was successfully divided by his 4 leading generals (Lysimachus, Cassander, Seleucus, and Ptolemy) among themselves.

VERSE 8

The Little Horn of Dan 8. proceeded from NORTHERN division. In BC 168, Rome had conquered Macedonia and made that country a part of its empire. The Northern kingdom would in due time become the Ottoman Empire, Turkey as we know it today.

Little horn came out of one of the goats horns, Macedon, after that territory became the Seleucid empire of the north. Rome became connected to God's people by the Jewish league in BC 158- 1Macc 8; Prideaux Vol ii p 166

VERSE 11

DAILY; 2 Thess 2:2-4 This "little horn" of verse 9 must be understood to symbolize Rome in its entire history including its 2 phases, pagan ("desolation") and papal (transgression of desolation)

PAGAN ROME (PAGANISM) REMODELED INTO PAPAL ROME (CLOAKED IN "CHRISTIAN" GARB)
PANTHEON IN ROME- מִקְדָּשׁ HEB 4720- 'MIQDASH'; ROMAN PANTHEON (PAGAN) SANCTUARY

VERSE 12

TRANSITION FROM PAGAN TO PAPAL

The symbol is viewed as an oppressor of the church & in its 1st phase is called "the daily" (desolation) and in its 2nd phase is called "transgression of desolation", the form of professedly Christian.

"HOST":

Though conquering Rome politically, the barbarians were themselves vanquished religiously by the theology of Rome and became the perpetrators of the same empire in another phase. And this was brought about by reason of "transgression"; that is, by the working of the "mystery of iniquity". The papacy is the most cunningly contrived, false ecclesiastical system ever devised... it has committed its abominations and practiced its orgies of superstition in the garb and under the pretense, of pure & undefiled religion.

DANIEL CHAPTER 8

DESOLATION: paganism [sacrifice], and the transgression of desolation [papacy "rebellion"], to give both the sanctuary [שֶׁטַח H6944- QODESH- 'HOLY PLACE': set apart by God] and the host to be trodden under foot? [1260 days/ years of papal persecution ended in 1798 (538 A.D.-1798 A.D.). Sanctuary sacrificial services ended when Christ died as our perfect sacrifice on the cross in 31 A.D. Christ was crucified under 'pagan' Rome]

The sacrificial system stopped at Christ's death in A.D. 31 when the temple veil was rent in twain (Heb 9:3, Mk 15:38; Matt 27:51)

The "daily" can't be the daily sacrifice of the Jews, the taking away of which, when the time came for it, occupied comparatively but an instant of time.

The "daily" must denote something which occupies a series of years (Dan 12:11- a 30 year time period from 508 A.D. to 538 A.D.). Daniel 7:8, 11:31 and 12:11 confirm the "removing" of the "daily" (paganism) to make way for papal supremacy

8:14 And he said unto me, Unto two thousand and three hundred days [457 BC to 1844 = 2300]; then [Oct 22, 1844] shall the sanctuary [שֶׁטַח H6944- QODESH- 'HOLY PLACE': set apart by God] be cleansed [investigative judgment begins Oct 22, 1844 in the heavenly sanctuary (Heb 8:1, 2; 9:23, 24) & closes (probation for the world closes) when Michael stands up; Dan 12:1].

8:15 And it came to pass, when I, [even] I Daniel, had seen the vision, and sought for the meaning, then, behold, there stood before me as the appearance of a man.

8:16 And I heard a man's voice between [the banks of] Ulai, which called, and said, Gabriel, make this [man] to understand the vision.

ANSWER TO VERSE 13

8:17 So he came near where I stood: and when he came, I was afraid, and fell upon my face: but he said unto me, Understand, O son of man: for at the time of the end [1798] [shall be] the vision.

8:18 Now as he was speaking with me, I was in a deep sleep on my face toward the ground: but he touched me, and set me upright.

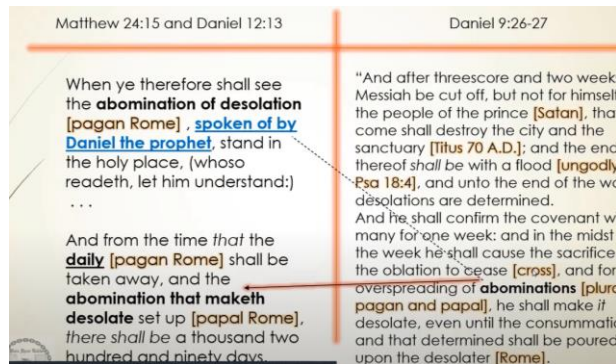

8:19 And he said, Behold, I will make thee know what shall be in the last end of the indignation [Eze 21:25-27, 31; overturn Medo-Persia, overturn Greece, overturn Rome— covers a period of time down past the ending of the papal persecutions in 1798, to the "last end of the indignation"- the 10 toes (kingdoms) of the Daniel 2 image: the judgment under the plagues and final destruction of rebellious man & earthly kingdoms. Since 1798 we have been living in the "last end of the indignation" that continues until the end of the world]: for at the time appointed [1798] the end [shall be].

8:20 The ram which thou sawest having [two] horns [are] the kings of Media and Persia.

VERSE 13- "TRODDEN UNDER FOOT"

Medo-Persia was pagan; Grecia was pagan; Rome in its first phase was pagan; these all were embraced in the "daily." Then came the 2nd phase of Rome, the papal form: the 'transgression of desolation'. Judgment begins Oct 22, 1844; Heb 8:1, 2; 9:23, 24

"The daily sacrifice" is the present reading of the English text. But no such thing as sacrifice is found in the original. This is acknowledged on all hands. It is a gloss or construction put on it by the translators. The true reading is, "the daily and the transgression of desolation," daily and transgression being connected together by "and," the daily desolation and the transgression of desolation. They are two desolating powers, which were to desolate the sanctuary and host; the church and her metropolis. They are paganism and popery, as will be shown at large in another place. {1842 JoL, PREX1 127.1}

2 Thess 2:7 For the mystery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now letteth [will let], until he be taken out of the way.

"I read on, and could find no other case in which it [the daily] was found, but in Daniel. I then [by the aid of a concordance] took those words which stood in connection with it, 'take way; he shall take away, the daily; from the time the daily shall be taken away', etc. I read on, and thought I should find no light on the text; finally, I came to 2 Thess. 2:7, 8. 'For the mystery of iniquity doth already work; only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way, and then shall that wicked be revealed,' etc. And when I had come to that text, oh! how clear and glorious the truth appeared! There it is! That is 'the daily!' Well now, what does Paul mean by 'he who now letteth,' or hindereth? By 'the man of sin,' and the 'wicked,' popery is meant. Well, what is it which hinders popery from being revealed? Why, it is paganism; well, then, 'the daily' must mean paganism." - Second Advent Manual, page 66. {1872 JNA, S23D 34.1} -Quoting Miller's experience

"The Fathers held that the Roman Empire was the "let" or hindrance, referred to by Paul in 2 Thessalonians, which kept back the manifestation of the "man of sin." This point is of great importance. The early church knew, he says, what this hindrance was. The early Church tells us what it did know upon the subject, and no one in these days can be in a position to contradict its testimony as to what Paul had, by word of mouth only, told the Thessalonians. It is a point on which ancient tradition alone can have any authority. Modern speculation is positively impertinent on such a subject."- Romanism and the Reformation by Henry Grattan Guinness

8:21 And the rough goat [is] the king of Grecia [Macedonian people "aegeadae, the goat people"]; and the great horn that [is] between his eyes [is] the first king [Alexander the Great].

8:22 Now that being broken, whereas four stood up for it, four kingdoms shall stand up out of the nation, but not in his power.

8:23 And in the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressors are come to the full, a king of fierce countenance [little horn; Dan 7:21], and understanding dark sentences [Latin language], shall stand up.

8:24 And his power shall be mighty, but not by his own power: and he shall destroy wonderfully, and shall prosper, and practice, and shall destroy the mighty and the holy people.

8:25 And through his policy [antichrist- 2Thess 2:4; Dan 8:11] also he shall cause craft to prosper in his hand; and he shall magnify [himself] in his heart, and by peace shall destroy many: he shall also stand up against the Prince of princes [Christ]; but he shall be broken without hand.

8:26 And the vision [2300 years] of the evening and the morning which was told [is] true: wherefore shut thou up the vision; for it [shall be] for many days. [Num 28:4]

8:27 And I Daniel fainted, and was sick [certain] days; afterward I rose up, and did the king's business; and I was astonished at the vision, but none understood [it]. [Daniel didn't understand the judgment that was to come upon these kingdoms in these last days. The vision (2300 days) is explained to Daniel in chapter 9:24-27]

"As to the "let" or hindrance to the manifestation of the "man of sin" referred to in 2Thess. 2, Mr. Elliott says: "We have the consenting testimony of the early Fathers, from Irenaeus, the disciple of the disciple of St. John, down to Chrysostom and Jerome, to the effect that it was understood to be the imperial power ruling and residing at Rome". Horae Apocalypticae vol. 3, pg. 92

VERSE 23 -another example of "dark sentences" (Latin language):

"Were I sick, I would just as soon call in a lawyer as a physician from among general practitioners. I would not touch their nostrums, to which they give Latin names. I am determined to know, in straight English, the name of everything that I introduce into my system."--Manuscript 86, 1897.

DANIEL CHAPTER 8

The interpretation for Daniel 8:9-27 is given in literal, plain language with no symbols in Daniel 11:30-36.

1 IN the third year of the reign of king Belshazzar a vision appeared unto me, even unto me Daniel, after that which appeared unto me at the first.

Daniel is now some eighty years of age. The vision he refers to here is the vision of the seventh chapter, which he had in the first year of Belshazzar's reign. The king of Babylon had a royal palace at Shushan. Daniel, as minister of the state employed in the king's business, was in that place when he had this vision.

Susa is Shushan which is located in Iran today.

2 And I saw in a vision; and it came to pass, when I saw, that I was at Shushan in the palace, which is in the province of Elam; and I saw in a vision, and I was by the river of Ulai. 3 Then I lifted up mine eyes, and saw, and, behold, there stood before the river a ram which had two horns: and the two horns were high; but one was higher than the other, and the higher came up last. 4 I saw the ram pushing westward, and northward, and southward; so that no beasts might stand before him, neither was there any that could deliver out of his hand; but he did according to his will, and became great.

A Ram Pushing Three Directions

Daniel Chapter 8:4

- ◆ “I saw the ram pushing westward, northward, and southward, so that no animal could withstand him;
- ◆ “nor was there any that could deliver from his hand, but he did according to his will and became great.” (Dan 8:3-4)

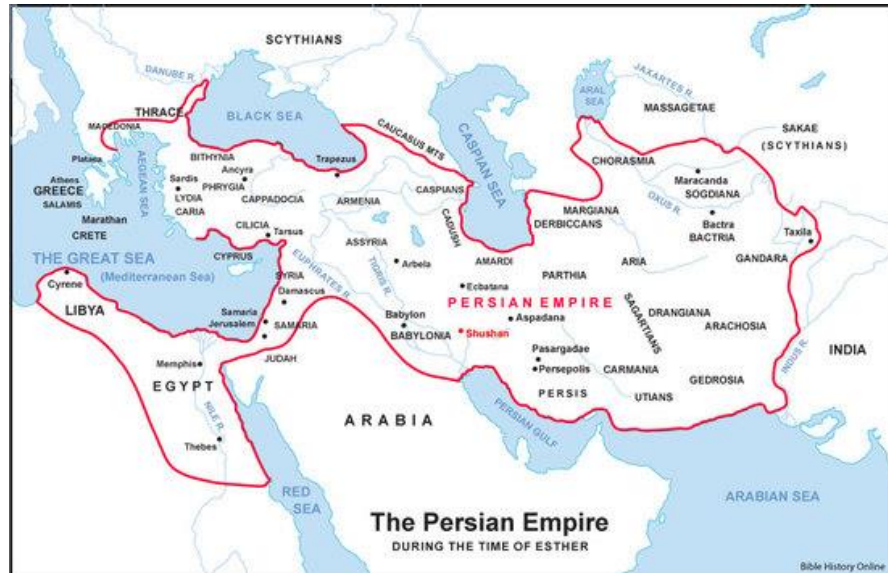

Medo Persia conquered Babylon, Turkey, Greece, Egypt, Afghanistan, Western India

In verse 20 an interpretation of this symbol is given in plain language, once again, we see the bible interpreting itself: “The ram which thou saw having two horns are the kings of Media and Persia”. The higher came up last, this was Persia. At first, it was simply an ally of the Medes but later came to be the leading division of the empire. The Medo-Persian kingdom extended to the boundaries of the then-known world.

As the ram pushed westward, northward, and southward, and no beast could stand before it, so the Medo-Persian empire extended its dominion in these directions. At the fall of Babylon, 120 provinces recognized the authority of Cyrus and Darius. These were held in subjection, and others added, so that in the time of the Ahasuerus of Esther, the kingdom controlled 127 provinces, extending from India on the east to the Mediterranean on the west, and from the Caspian Sea to Ethiopia. It was then called a glorious kingdom, and the monarch was spoken of as “his excellent majesty.” The same facts are made prominent in the 11th chapter of Daniel, where Xerxes, the fourth from Cyrus, stirs up all the Eastern nations to war with Greece: “He did according to his will, and became great.”

5 And as I was considering, behold, an he goat came from the west on the face of the whole earth, and touched not the ground: and the goat had a notable horn between his eyes. 6 And he came to the ram that had two horns, which I had seen standing before the river, and ran unto him in the fury of his power. 7 And I saw him come close unto the ram, and he was moved with choler against him, and smote the ram, and brake his two horns: and there was no power in the ram to stand before him, but he cast him down to the ground, and stamped upon him: and there was none that could deliver the ram out of his hand.

In verse 21 the angel explains the symbol to Daniel; “The rough goat is the king of Greece”. The “goat came from the west on the face of the whole earth”. The Greek army swept over the land from the west. The goat “touched not the ground”, a sign of the armies speed, which seemed to fly from point to point as if on the wind. This same characteristic, the speed of Greece, was indicated by the four wings of the leopard in chapter 7.

The notable horn between his eyes is the first king of the Macedonian Empire, Alexander the Great. Concerning verse 6, “He (the goat) came to the ram that had two horns, which I had seen standing before the river, and ran unto him in the fury of his power”. Alexander became absolute lord of the empire that replaced the Persian kings. The two horns (Medo-Persia) were broken and the ram was cast to the ground and stamped upon. The country ravaged, its armies cut to pieces, scattered and its cities were plundered.

Although the Persians restored the Jews to Jerusalem, that could not save them. It is only as nations or individuals continue in a love of the truth, only as they partake constantly of the leaves of the tree of life, that their existence is prolonged.....

First successful battle fought by Grecians against the Medes was on the banks of the Granicus, a stream of Asia Minor. This was in the year 334 B.C.

Battle of Grannicus was soon followed by the defeat of the Medo-Persian forces at the pass of Issus.

The third and overwhelming defeat was on the plains of Arbela, 331 B.C....

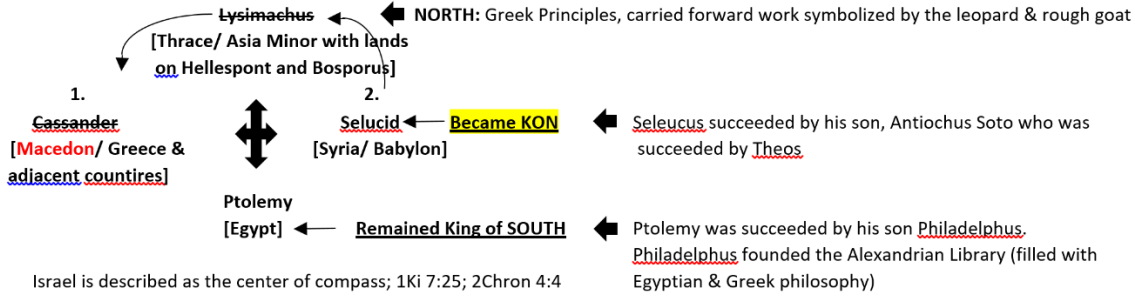

Alexander died at age. 32 after a universal reign of only two years. He died from alcoholism.

DANIEL CHAPTER 8

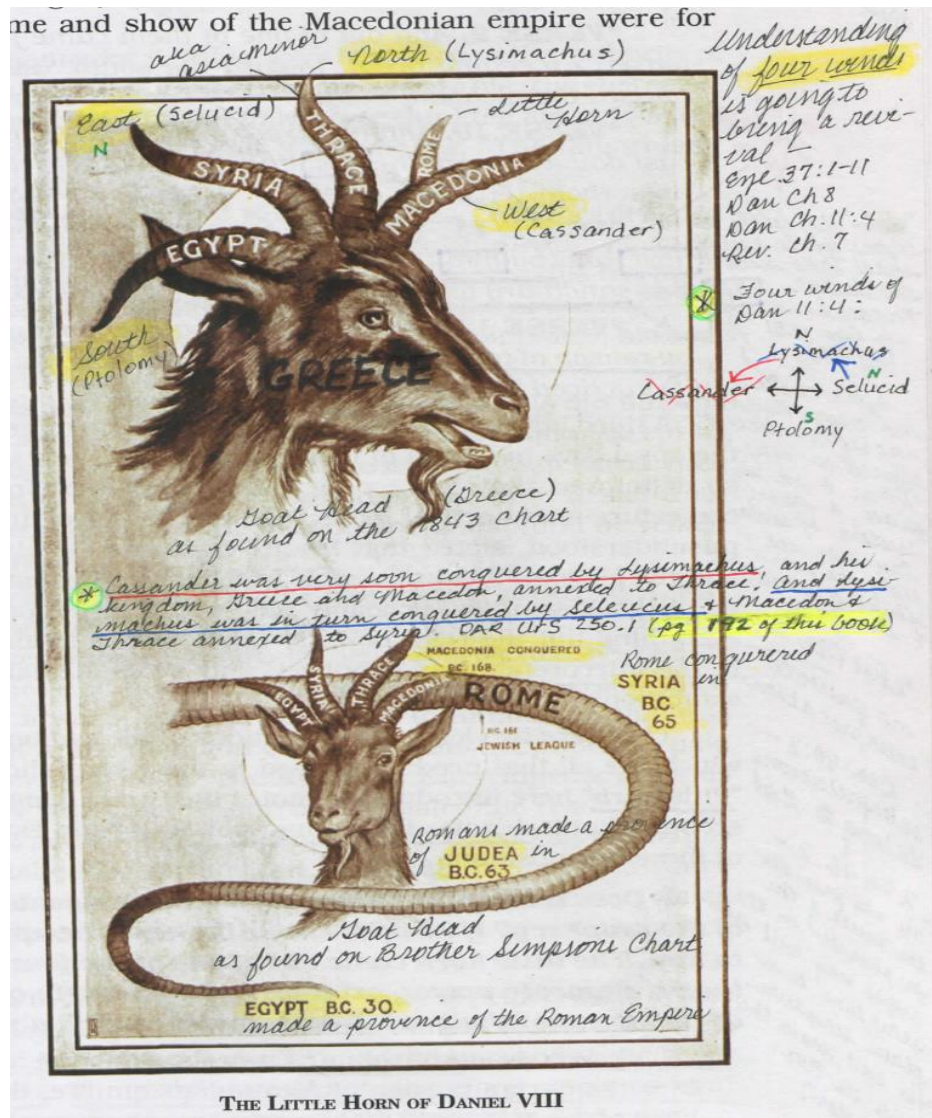

The Little Horn of Dan 8, proceeded from NORTHERN division. In BC 168, Rome had conquered Macedonia and made that country a part of its empire. The Northern kingdom would in due time become the Ottoman Empire, Turkey as we know it today.

Cassander was very soon conquered by Lysimachus, and his kingdom, Greece and Macedon, annexed to Thrace. And Lysimachus was in turn conquered by Seleucus and Macedon and Thrace annexed to Syria. {DAR UrS, 250.1}

8 Therefore the he goat waxed very great: and when he was strong, the great horn was broken; and for it came up four notable ones toward the four winds of heaven.

Now a third power is introduced into the prophecy, a "little horn". The little horn came from the Macedonian area, ruled by one of the four horns of the goat, but not from any one of the four horns itself. This was a new power, a small group of people, Romans, who had lived in that area for centuries and had been slowly growing in power. It was independent of any of the four horns of the goat. After the Romans conquered Macedonia they continued their rise to power. Medo-Persia, became "great", Greece, became "very great", but the Romans became "exceedingly great". The little horn, Rome, would go on to "stand up against" the Prince of princes, Jesus, and this was fulfilled when they crucified Him.

This is the same ground as that covered by the image of Daniel 2 and the vision of Daniel 7. In both, the power which succeeded Greece, as the fourth great universal world power, was Rome. Daniel 2 then lays a foundation for the rest of the book. It uses symbols for literal kings, kingdoms, events, times and places. We can then confirm from the writings of history the accuracy of the prophecies. Daniel 7 covers much the same ground as chapter 2 but adds additional details while using different symbols for the same kings/kingdoms. Daniel 8 follows in a similar pattern as it continues to enlarge upon the foundation of chapter 2, symbols representing literal kings/kingdoms and events. This pattern can be seen throughout the book of Daniel from its beginning to its end.

The host” and “the stars” of verse 10 are symbols that represent Gods people and their leaders in this case. In verse 13 of this chapter we read that both the sanctuary and its host would be trodden under foot (persecuted, oppressed and murdered). The stars represent the leaders. We see this same application in Revelation 12:4; where we read that the great red dragon, a symbol of Rome, cast down a third part of the stars to the ground, that is, a third part of the Jewish leadership. The Jews had three classes of rulers, - kings, priests, and the Sanhedrim. A third of these, the kings, were taken away, “cast down”, by the Roman power. The symbol of the little horn represents Rome in its entire history, including its two phases, pagan and papal. The papal phase of Rome continues until the end of time.

Rome meets all the specifications of the prophecy. The inspired descriptions given in the word of God of the character of this system are fully met and the prophecies concerning it have been most strikingly and accurately fulfilled in history.

Attack on God and on His People in Daniel

...he shall speak great words against the most High,	and think to change times and laws:	...it waxed great, even to the host of heaven;	...he shall exalt himself, and magnify himself above every god, and shall speak marvellous things against the God of gods,	...he shall magnify himself in his heart [See Isaiah 14:12-14.],
and shall wear out the saints of the most High,	and they shall be given into his hand until a time and times and the dividing of time.	and it cast down some of the host and of the stars to the ground, and stamped upon them. Yea, he magnified himself even to the prince of the host,	...they that understand among the people shall instruct many: yet they shall fall by the sword, and by flame, by captivity, and by spoil, many days.	and by peace shall destroy many: he shall also stand up against the Prince of princes;
Dan. 7:25		Chiasm of Dan. 8:10-12; 11:31-39		Dan. 8:25

9 And out of one of them came forth a little horn, which waxed exceeding great, toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the pleasant land. 10 And it waxed great, even to the host of heaven; and it cast down some of the host and of the stars to the ground, and stamped upon them [see Rev. 12:4]. 11 Yea, he magnified himself even to the prince of the host, and by him the daily [sacrifice] was taken away, and the place of his sanctuary [Rome] was cast down. 12 And an host was given him against the daily [sacrifice] by reason of transgression, and it cast down the truth to the ground; and it practised, and prospered.

From the Macedonian area, ruled by one of the four horns of the goat, but not from any one of the four horns themselves came this new power. This was a small group of people called the Romans. They had lived in that area for centuries and had been slowly growing in power. Their special attribute was a skill in all things of a political nature. Medo-Persia, became “great”, Greece, became “very great”, but the Romans would become “exceedingly great”. This “little horn” was literally pagan Rome and symbolically, papal Rome, which would come later. Therefore, the little horn represents Rome in both its pagan and papal form. It was pagan Rome who would “stand up against” the Prince of princes, by allowing Christ to be crucified. This is the same ground as that covered by the image of Daniel 2 and the vision of Daniel 7. In both, the power which succeeded Greece, as the fourth great universal world power was Rome. Daniel 2 then lays a foundation for the rest of the book. It uses symbols for literal kings, kingdoms, events, times and places. We can then confirm from the writings of history the accuracy of the prophecies.

Daniel 7 covers much the same ground as chapter 2 but adds additional details while using different symbols for the same kings and kingdoms. Daniel 8 follows a similar pattern as it continues to enlarge upon the foundation of chapter 2, symbols representing literal kings/kingdoms and events. This pattern is seen throughout the book of Daniel from its beginning to its end. With the exception of chapter 11 which is written in a plain and literal language.

The first phase of Rome was paganism and it "daily" (continually), persecuted Gods people. Sacrifice is a supplied word not present in the original text. Babylon, Medo-Persia, Greece and Rome were all pagan and all "daily", that is, continually persecuted Gods people. It was prophesied by Ezekiel that Israel would be stripped of its kings and overturned three times following the first conquering by the nation of Babylon, then by Medo-Persia, Greece, and finally Rome. Ezekiel 21:27 says, " I will overturn, overturn, overturn, it: and it shall be no more until he [Christ] come whose right it is; and I will give it him."

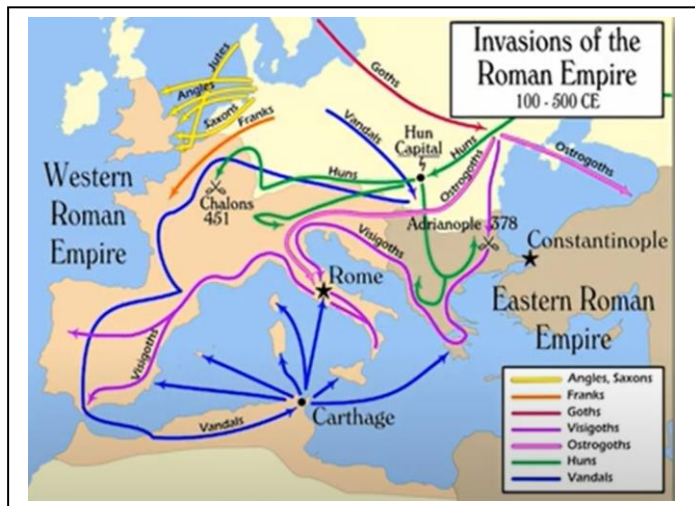

The place of his [Rome's], sanctuary and place of worship was the city of Rome, which was to be "cast down" or removed. The seat of government was split between Rome and Turkey by Emperor Constantine the Great in A. D. 330. The same transaction is brought to view in Revelation 13:2, where it is said that the dragon, pagan Rome, gave to the beast, papal Rome, his seat, the city of Rome.

The place of his [Rome's], sanctuary and place of worship was the city of Rome, which was to be "cast down" or removed. The same transaction is brought to view in Revelation 13:2, where it is said that the dragon, pagan Rome, gave to the beast, papal Rome, his seat, the city of Rome.

The papal phase of Rome was the "transgression of desolation", paganism baptized. This was a monstrous system of worship that claimed the power to forgive sins and change the commandments of God. Such power is reserved to God alone. The papacy is the most cunningly contrived, false ecclesiastical system ever devised; and it may be called a system of iniquity because it has committed its abominations and practiced its orgies of superstition, in the garb, and under the pretense, of pure and undefiled religion. To practice and prosper is a brief description of the work and career of the papacy. It would cast the truth to the ground by being loaded with traditions. The truth was turned into mummery and superstition and was cast down and obscured. The barbarians and pagans who converted to Catholicism were the hosts given to the Papacy. The "host" in turn hastened the transition from pagan to Catholicism.

In each of the above texts, the evident meaning of "daily abomination," is, the abominations of paganism in heathen Rome. "The transgression of desolation;" "the abomination that maketh desolate," etc., mean, the transgressions, or the abominations of Popery, which have for so long a period made the Church of Christ desolate, and have trodden it under foot. Can there be any doubt but this is the true meaning? What power trod down and defiled the sanctuary? If history be permitted to answer, it will proclaim, Rome! Pagan Rome! What power first authoritatively persecuted the Church of Christ? Pagan Rome! What power succeeded paganism, both in local situation and spirit? Papal Rome! Who has continued the persecutions of paganism against Christians till now? Popery! Popery!! Through what influence was paganism destroyed, or the daily abomination taken away, and the place of his sanctuary east down? The influence of Christianity. The Roman empire was destroyed or overrun by a horde of barbarians and divided among them. These barbarian kings were pagans; and when Rome was taken, they are said to have, offered sacrifices of men, women and children, to their supposed deities, in the city of Rome.

In the course of a few years those heathen kings became converts to Christianity. Thus, "a host was given him;" or the empire became Christian, and pagan abominations were taken away. Since the conversion of those pagan kings, pagan rites and sacrifices have not been known in Rome. Thus, "the place of his sanctuary was cast down." Soon after this the man of sin appeared, and St. Paul's instruction to the Thessalonians was fulfilled. 2 Thess. ii. 7, 8: "Only he who now letteth (or hindereth) will let (or hinder) until he be taken out of the way. And then shall that wicked be revealed." "The daily abomination" was taken away, and the transgression of desolation, Popery, set up in its place. {1838 JoL, PSC 35.1} See above photos of Pantheon, pagan temple—"his sanctuary was cast down."

DANIEL CHAPTER 8

Events transpiring in 508:

- "the champion of the Catholic faith," "depopulated Thrace, and exterminated sixty-five thousand of his fellow-Christians." {1843 ApH, TSAM 79.1}
- Clovis baptized and becomes ally of papacy & its protector. Subjugated the Arian (non-Trinitarian) Visigoths in 507-508. Ambassador of Anastasius conferred on Clovis the insignia & title of Consul of Rome and Patrician. A Catholic King of the west for the first time became the supreme power in Rome. Supremacy of Catholics began in 508 AD and supremacy for the Papacy began in 538 AD. Under bishop Remigius' direction, Clovis married Clotilde, a Burgundian princess who was a Catholic in a realm influenced predominately by Arians.

King Arthur

- 1.) "Having succeeded in this enterprise, (one of his battles,) he directed his course to York, where he is said to have established the Christian worship on the ruins of the Pagan."- Recs' Encyclopedia, art. Arthur.
- 2.) That he was the first Christian king; and that he was crowned by a Catholic bishop; and that his coronation was according to the Papal mode in its more mature condition. "Arthur was crowned by Dubricius, Archbishop of Caerleon."- Kippis. Biog. Brit.

Interesting Note: Both Clovis in France and Arthur in England, in the year 508, establishing the Catholic faith on the ruins of paganism.

- On the date of his coronation there is a difference of opinion among historians. Some place it as late as A. D. 516; others place it in 508.
- Rapin, who claims to be more exact in the chronology of events in his history, dates them as follow:-
 1. "He mounted the throne of Dammonium in 467, at the age of fifteen.
 2. "In 476 he was created Patrician by Ambrosius.
 3. "In 508 he was elected Monarch of Britain. -Book II., p. 129. See Milton's History of England, BOOK III., A. D. 50

13 Then I heard one saint speaking, and another saint said unto that certain saint which spake, How long shall be the vision concerning the daily [sacrifice], and the transgression of desolation, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trodden under foot? 14 And he said unto me, Unto two thousand and three hundred days; then shall the sanctuary be cleansed.

These two verses of Daniel 8 close the vision proper. The word "daily" (meaning, continual or continuous) should stand alone. The word sacrifice was added by the transcribers and does not appear in the original texts. The transgression of desolation, the papacy, was an abomination so terrible it would be desolating to God's people.

The sanctuary, in verse 14 was to be "cleansed" at the end of the 2,300 days, that is, prophetic years. This refers to the literal heavenly sanctuary, as the earthly sanctuary would cease to function long before the 2,300 years would expire in 1844.

Daniel would have naturally viewed the sanctuary in question here as the earthly sanctuary in Jerusalem, which then lay in ruins. Considering the time frame was some 2,000 plus years in length, Daniel was understandably overcome with grief. He was thinking the sanctuary of his people would remain in ruins for thousands of more years.

The angel gave Daniel time to recover from his shock, several years in fact. In chapter nine, the angel's instruction to Daniel would correct his misunderstanding of the meaning of the sanctuary to be cleansed and the particulars of the vision.

The cleansing of the earthly sanctuary, once a year on the "Day of Atonement" was symbolic of the final cleansing of the heavenly sanctuary. This "cleansing" is the review of the records and the assignment of reward (good or bad) for every person who has ever lived on earth. This is symbolically the removal of sin from that place, just as symbolically this cleansing also applied to the earthly sanctuary.

DANIEL CHAPTER 8

15 And it came to pass, when I, even I Daniel, had seen the vision, and sought for the meaning, then, behold, there stood before me as the appearance of a man [Jesus]. 16 And I heard a man's voice between the banks of Ulai, which called, and said, Gabriel, make this man [Daniel] to understand the vision.

The commandment was given to make this man, Daniel, understand the vision. Gabriel was here addressed by one still higher in rank; one whose power it was to command and appoint Gabriel's work. This one was none other than the Archangel, Michael, who is Christ Himself. Before Gabriel can carry out this command, he must wait for Daniel to recover, as we shall see in verse 17.

17 So he [Gabriel] came near where I stood: and when he came, I was afraid, and fell upon my face: but he said unto me, Understand, O son of man: for at the time of the end shall be the vision. 18 Now as he was speaking with me, I was in a deep sleep on my face toward the ground: but he touched me, and set me upright. 19 And he said, Behold, I will make thee know what shall be in the last end of the indignation: for at the time appointed the end shall be.

Daniel was completely overcome by the majesty of the heavenly messenger. The angel laid his hand upon him to give him assurance and from his helpless and prostrate condition set him upright. The angel then enters upon an interpretation of the vision; "The indignation" refers to God telling His people, Israel at the time, that He would pour upon them His indignation for their wickedness. He had given directions concerning the "profane wicked prince of Israel", "Remove the diadem, and take off the crown. . . . I will overturn, overturn, overturn, it: and it shall be no [more], until He comes whose right it is; and I will give it [Him]". This period of God's indignation, during which the host and the sanctuary were to be trodden under foot, began with Babylon enslaving the nation and destroying their sanctuary. The diadem was removed and the crown taken off by Babylon. It was "overturned" by the Medes and Persians, and again by the Grecians and yet a third time by the Romans. Corresponding to the three times the word was repeated by the prophet. All those who follow Christ will remain in subjection to earthly powers until His eternal kingdom is set up. Only then will the indignation fully cease.

The "time appointed" makes reference to the "last end of the indignation", that time just before Christ is to return and all things are about to end. That time during which the judgment was to be set, the books were to be opened (reviewed) and the indignation was near its final end.

The Goat is Greece! Alexander the Broken Horn!
 Daniel 8:21,22

♦ 21 "And the male goat is the kingdom of Greece. The large horn that is between its eyes is the first king."

♦ 22 "As for the broken horn and the four that stood up in its place, four kingdoms shall arise out of that nation, but not with its power."

The angel says that the Goat is Greece and the horns--as we learn from History--are Alexander's & his 4 generals' lesser kingdoms. Very simple!

20 The ram which thou sawest having two horns are the kings of Media and Persia. 21 And the rough goat is the king of Grecia: and the great horn that is between his eyes is the first king. 22 Now that being broken, whereas four stood up for it, four kingdoms shall stand up out of the nation, but not in his power.

The angel now speaks clearly as he explains the vision. The distinguishing feature of the Persian Empire, the union of the two nationalities which composed it, is represented by the two horns of the ram, he explains. Greece attained its greatest glory as a unit under the leadership of Alexander the Great. This part of her history is represented by the first phase of the goat, during which time the one notable horn symbolized Alexander. Upon his death, the kingdom fell into fragments, but soon consolidated into four grand divisions. These were represented by the second phase of the goat, when it had four horns, coming up to replace the broken horn. None of these divisions possessed the strength of the original kingdom.

23 And in the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressors are come to the full, a king of fierce countenance, and understanding dark sentences, shall stand up. 24 And his power shall be mighty, but not by his own power: and he shall destroy wonderfully, and shall prosper, and practise, and shall destroy the mighty and the holy people. 25 And through his policy also he shall cause craft to prosper in his hand; and he shall magnify himself in his heart, and by peace shall destroy many: he shall also stand up against the Prince of princes; but he shall be broken without hand.

The power here spoken of, “a king of fierce countenance” is, of course, the little horn, Rome, which follows the four divisions of the goat kingdom toward the termination of their career. As to “understanding dark sentences” this new power would speak a language unknown to the Jews, Latin.

Pagan and especially in its second phase, papal Rome was “Mighty, but Not by His Own Power”, verse 24. Rome skillfully used the secular powers by exercising spiritual control over them. The threat of excommunication was imposed on those who refused to honor this false system of worship. This is the most formidable political weapon ever brought to bear upon mankind. It was the basis of control by the papacy, even today and is also the basis of radical Islamists.

Rome has been distinguished above all other powers for its policy of craftiness, by means of which it brought the nations under its control and then used them to carry out its evil intents; All the while claiming to be innocent and peace-loving. It is even now, even today, employing the same strategy as before; in appearance, innocent and peace-loving. But when it has achieved sufficient civil power, as it surely will (the deadly wound will be healed), it will once again manifest its true character. It will use its corrupt moral authority to convince civil authority to command respect for its religious decrees. Apostate Christianity, the “daughters of the beast” will be a tool in its hand to accomplish this end. This “image to the beast” will be put into place by apostate Sunday keeping churches. Who pass a Federal law to enforce the false Sabbath, honoring Sunday.

Just as its mother church, Catholicism had done. Thus, they will once again change “times and laws”. We study the first “beast” of Revelation 13 and how it was set up in order to understand how an “image” honoring that beast will be set up by the “two-horned beast”; America and apostate Christianity. What political, economic, war and other issues will be employed? Who will they ally themselves with to move forward their agenda? And that agenda is the same now as it was in the beginning, the ability to command men to violate their conscience and bend the knee to their power. That first step was to alter the fourth commandment from the seventh to the first day of the week. This was promoted as a spiritual celebration and a time for families to spend together. The “image” will be formed by the two-horned beast, America. This is the second beast power and it will rise without a full understanding of what they are doing and pass laws to enforce the papal dogma it has embraced. It is only when the two-horned beast has attained the power to command heretics even unto death that the deadly wound is fully healed. The two-horned beast in America and the little horn beast (the Leopard Beast in Revelation) in the old world will combine to force all the world to honor its dogmas and doctrines under pain of death. And all the world wondered at the power of the beast. When these two beast powers merge, Roman Catholicism in the old world and Apostate Christianity in the new, then Satan will appear as an angel working great miracles. At that time it may be said, truly, the “beast” is the author of evil, Satan himself.

26 And the vision of the evening and the morning which was told is true: wherefore shut thou up the vision; for it shall be for many days. 27 And I Daniel fainted, and was sick certain days; afterward I rose up, and did the king’s business; and I was astonished at the vision, but none understood it.

“The vision of the evening and the morning” refers to the time period of the prophecy of 2,300-years. In view of the long period of oppression and the calamities which were to come upon his people, Daniel fainted and was sick certain days. He was astonished at the vision but did not fully understand it yet. Daniel had received all that he could then bear; further instruction by the angel was deferred to a future time, as we shall see in chapters nine and eleven.

DANIEL CHAPTER 8

Daniel—Chapter 8 Part 1 Two Beasts—Three Powers!

Stephan N Haskell, 1908, The Story of Daniel, pg. 119

A PERIOD of two years had passed since the vision recorded in the seventh chapter of Daniel. The prophet's mind had dwelt often upon the scenes which his eye then beheld, and the subject of the judgment had been pondered again and again.

Daniel 7:28

Stephan N Haskell, 1908, The Story of Daniel, pg. 119

He kept the matter in his heart, he himself says, for in the days of Daniel, as at the present time, only the few could comprehend and appreciate spiritual topics. Many changes of a material nature had taken place during those two years. Wickedness had increased in the kingdom of Babylon, and no reverence whatever was shown for God or His people. This saddened the heart of Daniel.

Daniel 8:1-5a

Stephan N Haskell, 1908, The Story of Daniel, pg. 120

In his previous vision the second kingdom had been represented by a bear which raised itself on one side and had three ribs in its mouth. Both symbols apply to the double nature of the kingdom of the Medes and Persians, but the uneven horns of the ram give a more specific description; for while the Median kingdom was the older of the two, the Persian excelled it in strength, and its position in history must be attributed to the line of Persian kings which began with Cyrus the Great.

1897 Uriah Smith, Daniel and the Revelation, pg. 146, 147

The two horns represented the two nationalities of which the empire consisted. The higher came up last. This represented the Persian element, which, from being at first simply an ally of the Medes, came to be the leading division of the empire. The different directions in which the ram was seen pushing, denote the directions in which the Medes and Persians carried their conquests. No earthly powers could stand before them while they were marching up to the exalted position to which the providence of God had summoned them.

Daniel 8:5b-8

Stephan N Haskell, 1908, The Story of Daniel, pg. 122

No historian has ever given a more graphic account of the contest between the Greeks under Alexander the Great and the Persians under Darius. That kingdom which before had shown such wonderful strength, crumbled and fell, and there was none to help.

Daniel 8:20, 21

Daniel 8:9a-9b

Stephan N Haskell, 1908, The Story of Daniel, pg. 125

In the division under consideration, the prophet sees a little horn coming forth from one of these four divisions. Here is brought to view the power symbolized by the fourth beast of the seventh chapter of Daniel. In his first vision the fourth beast was so terrible and had such a strange appearance that Daniel asked for a clearer explanation of its work.

Stephan N Haskell, 1908, The Story of Daniel, pg. 125

In his second vision the little horn is not named, but its work as a kingdom is still further portrayed. One feels while reading both the vision and the interpretation of the little horn, that he is coming into the presence of a power greater and more terrible than any which had hitherto existed. The accumulated forces of the evil of past ages is concentrated in this rising power, which waxed exceeding great. It was in truth the masterpiece from Satan's workshop. Four thousand years of trial had not passed in vain.

DANIEL CHAPTER 8

Alonzo T. Jones, Advent Review & Sabbath Herald, May 23, 1899

The fourth one was "diverse from all ... that were before it." These four were Babylon, Medo-Persia, Grecia, and Rome. And Rome was diverse from all before it, in that it was a republic. It was while it was a republic, that Rome "devoured, break in pieces, and stamped the residue with his feet."

Stephan N Haskell, 1908, The Story of Daniel, pg. 126

Aside from the strong central government which was built up by Rome; which brought every other nation to her feet, and made slaves of the noblest of races; which was robbing men of God-given rights, and violating every principle of equity and justice,—aside from all this, the great arrogance of Rome was displayed when the nation magnified itself against the host (church) of heaven.

Daniel 8:24-25a

Stephan N Haskell, 1908, The Story of Daniel, pg. 126

What Satan could not accomplish through open opposition, he sought to accomplish by policy and strategy. Silently, stealthily, the principles of evil crept into the church of Christ, which had grown up in spite of the pagan opposition.

Stephan N Haskell, 1908, The Story of Daniel, pg. 128

In the most careful way the rising generation was educated, and Christianity took the place of paganism. But Satan could not see his power overthrown without making a desperate struggle, and by stealth he insinuated his principles into the new church. Wrangles, disputes, theological controversies drove out the spirit of life.

Daniel—Chapter 8 Part 2 The Daily—The Abomination

Daniel 8:11

1897 Uriah Smith, Daniel and the Revelation, pgs. 154, 155

By the little horn the daily sacrifice was taken away. This little horn must be understood to symbolize Rome in its entire history including its two phases, pagan and papal. These two phases are elsewhere spoken of as the "daily" (sacrifice is a supplied word) and the "transgression of desolation;" the daily (desolation) signifying the pagan form, and the transgression of desolation, the papal. In the actions ascribed to this power, sometimes one form is spoken of, sometimes the other. "By him" (the papal form) "the daily" (the pagan form) "was taken away." Pagan Rome was remodeled into papal Rome. And the place of his sanctuary, or worship, the city of Rome, was cast down. The seat of government was removed by Constantine in A.D. 330 to Constantinople. This same transaction is brought to view in Revelation 13:2, where it is said that the dragon, pagan Rome, gave to the beast, papal Rome, his seat, the city of Rome.

Daniel 8:12

Uriah Smith, The Seven Heads of Revelation 12, 13, and 17, pg. 26

The symbol is viewed as an oppressor of the church, and in its first phase is called "the daily" (desolation), and in its second phase, "the transgression of desolation." The first was pagan, the second professedly Christian. And this change could be accomplished only by the taking away of paganism by the corrupted form of Christianity which finally took possession of the Roman world. Rome in its pagan form was a persecutor of the people of God, first in the persons of the Jews, and, secondly, in the persons of Christians. And in its papal form, it persecuted more terribly still, true Christians who refused to follow the apostasy.

DANIEL CHAPTER 8

Stephan N Haskell, 1908, The Story of Daniel, pg. 128

Paganism — the "daily" of Daniel 8:12 — was taken away, it is true, and Rome became nominally a Christian empire. Her emperor professed the name of Christ, and carried before his army the banner of the cross. Decrees were issued causing men to worship according to the dictates of Rome. Then it was that man — the emperor — and the empire attempted to exalt themselves above the God of heaven. The principles of Lucifer himself had crowded out the truth of Christ, and, as was shown to Daniel, the truth was cast down to the ground.

1897 Uriah Smith, Daniel and the Revelation, pgs. 155

¶The little horn cast the truth to the ground, and practiced and prospered. This describes, in few words, the work and career of the papacy. The truth is by it hideously caricatured; it is loaded with traditions; it is turned into mummery and superstition; it is cast down and obscured. And this antichristian power has "practiced," — practiced its deceptions upon the people, practiced its schemes of cunning to carry out its own ends and aggrandize its own power. And it has "prospered." It has made war with the saints, and prevailed against them. It has run its allotted career, and is soon to be broken without hand, to be given to the burning flame, and to perish in the consuming glories of the second appearing of our Lord.

Stephan N Haskell, 1908, The Story of Daniel, pg. 129

Twice Daniel had been shown the twofold history of Rome: first as a pagan power, when it was more cruel than any pagan government before it; and later as a professedly Christian power, when its cruelty far surpassed all the workings of paganism.

Daniel 8:13, 14

1897 Uriah Smith, Daniel and the Revelation, pgs. 165

It will be safe for us to put ourselves in imagination in the place of Daniel, and view the subject from his standpoint. What would he understand by the term sanctuary as addressed to him? If we can ascertain this, it will not be difficult to arrive at correct conclusions on this subject. His mind would inevitably turn, on the mention of that word, to the sanctuary of that dispensation; and certainly he well knew where that was. His mind did turn to Jerusalem, the city of his fathers, which was then in ruins, and to their "beautiful house," which, as Isaiah laments, was burned with fire. Isaiah 64:11. And so, as was his wont, with his face turned toward the place of their once venerated temple, he prayed God to cause His face to shine upon His sanctuary, which was desolate. By the word sanctuary Daniel evidently understood their temple at Jerusalem.

Daniel 8:15

Stephan N Haskell, 1908, The Story of Daniel, pg. 130

Daniel longed for an understanding of what he had seen, and the close connection between human longing and Christ's heart is shown here; for Christ, appearing as a man, stood before the prophet.

Daniel 8:16-19

1897 Uriah Smith, Daniel and the Revelation, pg. 179

With a general statement that at the time appointed the end shall be, and that he will make him to know what shall be in the last end of the indignation, he enters upon an interpretation of the vision.

1828 Webster's Dictionary:

DESOLATION, n.

1. The act of desolating destruction or expulsion of inhabitants; destruction; ruin; waste.
2. A place deprived of inhabitants, or otherwise wasted, ravaged and ruined.
3. A desolate state; gloominess; sadness; destitution.

DANIEL CHAPTER 8

1828 Webster's Dictionary:

INDIGNATION, n.

1. Anger or extreme anger, mingled with contempt, disgust or abhorrence.
2. The anger of a superior; extreme anger; particularly, the wrath of God against sinful men for their ingratitude and rebellion.
3. The effects of anger; the dreadful effects of God's wrath; terrible judgments.
4. Holy displeasure at one's self for sin.

1897 Uriah Smith, Daniel and the Revelation, pgs. 179, 180

The indignation must be understood to cover a period of time. What time? God told His people Israel that He would pour upon them His indignation for their wickedness; and thus He gave directions concerning the "profane wicked prince of Israel:" "Remove the diadem, and take off the crown. ... I will overturn, overturn, overturn it: and it shall be no more, until He come whose right it is; and I will give it Him." Ezekiel 21:25-27, 31.

1897 Uriah Smith, Daniel and the Revelation, pg. 180

The Jews then, having rejected Christ, were soon scattered abroad over the face of the earth; and spiritual Israel has taken the place of the literal seed; but they are in subjection to earthly powers, and will be till the throne of David is again set up, — till He who is its rightful heir, the Messiah, the Prince of peace, shall come, and then it will be given Him. Then the indignation will have ceased.

Daniel—Chapter 8 & 9 Part 1 The Sanctuary To Be Cleansed!

Daniel 8:14

Doctor David Paulson was recorded saying in the General Conference Bulletin, April 11, 1901

It is not a mere coincidence that when the light flashed to this people with reference to the cleansing of the heavenly sanctuary that at the same time corresponding light was flashing upon us as to how to co-operate in securing the cleansing of the earthly temple.

It is not a mere coincidence, but was in the hand of God that a people should be prepared to meet him, that a people should be getting ready to pass over without seeing death, that was to have a special cleansing work done for them, and that is why the light has been flashing upon this last generation. This great truth with reference to the cleansing of these soul-temples has specially come out in this last generation.

Ellen G White, Review & Herald, February 11, 1890

Christ is cleansing the temple in heaven from the sins of the people, and we must work in harmony with him upon the earth, cleansing the soul temple from its moral defilement. If we will work thus, we shall find that the sweet influence of God's Spirit will be wrought into our life. Grace and peace and strength will take the place of strife and weakness, and instead of talking of discouragement and gloom, we shall speak of God's light and love and joy. We shall be looking at the things that are not seen, which are not temporal, but eternal. When we engage in this work, the angels of God will draw near to communicate divine power, and combine heavenly strength with human weakness. Then we shall grow into the image of our Lord. We shall be learning how to believe in him, learning how to commit our souls to him, as unto a faithful Creator. The apostle says, "It is God that worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure." And as a result, our mental and spiritual powers increase. As we learn of Christ, we shall understand how to keep our spiritual strength, we shall feed on the word of God, and we shall have the blessed experience described by the apostle in these words: 1Peter 1:8 "Whom having not seen, ye love; in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory."

DANIEL CHAPTER 8

E. J. Waggoner, Present Truth UK, September 4, 1902; Advent Review & Sabbath Herald, September 30, 1902

The blotting out of sin is the erasing of it from the nature, the being of man. The blood of Jesus Christ cleanses from all sin. Our bodies are but the channel, the border, the sand upon the shore, of the cover of life. Impressions have been made upon us by sin. At the sea-shore, when you see a smooth piece of sand, your first impulse is to make some mark on it, to write the characters upon it. Then the sea comes up, and each wave that passes over it helps to obliterate the impression until it is entirely blotted out. Even so the stream of life from the throne of God will wash away and blot out the impressions of sin upon us.

Ellen G White, Manuscript. 15, 1886, pgs. 2, 3

Godliness, sobriety, and consistency will characterize the life and example of every true Christian. The work which Christ is doing in the sanctuary above will engage the thoughts and be the burden of the conversation, because by faith he has entered into the sanctuary. He (THE TRUE CHRISTIAN) is on earth, but his sympathies are in harmony with the work that Christ is doing in heaven. Christ is cleansing the heavenly sanctuary from the sins of the people, and it is the work of all who are laborers together with God to be cleansing the sanctuary of the soul from everything that is offensive to Him. Everything like evil surmising, envy, jealousy, enmity, and hatred, will be put away, for such things grieve the Holy Spirit of God and put Christ to an open shame. Love of self will not exist, nor will any engaged in this work be puffed up. The example of Christ's life, the consistency of his character, will make his influence far-reaching. He will be a living epistle, known and read of all men.

James 4:5-10

Ellen G White, Signs of the Times, September 29, 1887

It is by engaging in this work, and by exercising living faith in God, that we are to perfect a Christian character. The work of cleansing the soul-temple and preparing for Christ's appearing must be done while we are in this world of temptation. Just as Christ finds us in character when he comes, so we shall remain.

Daniel 12:1

Daniel—Chapter 8 & 9 Part 2 God's Narrow Path, Few Willing To Walk Therein!

Ellen White, Signs of the Times, July 28, 1881

The Lord was not pleased with this arrangement, for it was contrary to the order which he had established. It was an assumption of authority on the part of Gideon which proved disastrous to himself and to all Israel. God designs that his people shall place a high estimate upon every provision for their salvation. ... In seeking to bring the worship of God nearer home, Gideon was but providing to indulge the people in their indolence. This would have no beneficial influence upon them. All plans based upon human reasoning should be looked upon with a jealous eye, lest Satan insinuate himself into the position which belongs to God alone. The course pursued by Gideon proved a snare, not only to himself and family, but to all Israel. The irregular and unauthorized worship led the people finally to forsake the Lord altogether, to serve idols.

1904 Alonzo T. Jones, Empires of the Bible pg. 195

When this tribe sought for an inheritance in the land, they first sent out five men, who, in their search, came to Laish, and found a place where there was "no want of anything that is in the earth." They returned and told their brethren what they had discovered, and the tribe then sent six hundred men to take possession of the place. As these men were on the way, they came to the house of one Micah of Mount Ephraim, where they found a graven image, an ephod, and a teraphim, and a molten image, and a Levite whom Micah had hired to be his priest in the worship of these gods. The Danites took priest, idols, and all, and carried them with them to Laish. They attacked and blotted out Laish and its inhabitants, and built there a new city and called it Dan, and there established their idolatrous worship.

DANIEL CHAPTER 8

Ellen White, 1877, Redemption, Vol. 1 pgs. 10-12

The sacrificial offerings, and the priesthood of the Jewish system, were instituted of God to represent the death and mediatorial work of Christ. All those ceremonies had no meaning, and no virtue, only as they related to Christ, who was himself the foundation and existence of the entire system. ... The Jewish system was symbolical, and was to continue until the perfect Offering should take the place of the figurative.

1914 Stephan N Haskell, The Cross and Its Shadow, pg. 204

In the type the trumpets were blown throughout Israel, warning all of the near approach of the solemn day of atonement. In the antitype we should expect some world-wide message to be given in trumpet tones, announcing the time near when the great antitypical day of atonement, the investigative judgment would convene in the heavens. Beginning with the years 1833-34 and extending down to 1844, such a message was given to the world in trumpet tones, announcing, "The hour of His judgment is come."

Leviticus 23:24-30

1914 Stephan N Haskell, The Cross and Its Shadow, pg. 220, 221

When the antitypical day of atonement arrived, and the investigative judgment opened in the heavenly sanctuary, God expects the antitypical congregation on earth to fulfil their part of the antitype just as faithfully as Christ, our High Priest, fulfills His part in the heavens. Anciently the congregation was not accepted as a whole; but it was an individual work. ... In the ancient service, if an individual failed to keep the day of atonement as God directed, his sins were not confessed over the scapegoat by the high priest; but he was cut off from among the people of God. The individual who, during the antitypical day of atonement, or the investigative judgment, thinks that Christ will plead his case while he himself ignores the work God has enjoined upon the antitypical congregation, will find at last that his name is blotted out from the book of life. We are saved by faith in our High Priest, but faith without works is dead. If we have a living faith, we shall gladly do as the Lord directs.

1914 Stephan N Haskell, The Cross and Its Shadow, pg. 223, 224

The antitypical day of atonement covers a period of years. In the type there was a fast of twenty-four hours required. During this one day there was to be complete control of the appetite; and it was a type of the self-control to be exercised during the antitypical period of years. God designs that His people shall be masters of their appetites, and keep under the body. Satan would give loose rein to the appetite, and let it control the person.

1John 2:16

1914 Stephan N Haskell, The Cross and Its Shadow, pg. 277, 228

The day of atonement was kept as a ceremonial sabbath by the ancient congregation. All work was laid aside, and the entire thought was given to seeking God and serving Him. God's work was given the first thought during the entire day. Such was the type; but it does not follow that on the antitypical day of atonement no one should attend to personal business, for God never intended His people to be "slothful in business." He promises to bless them in temporal things if they fulfil the antitype by looking after His work and service first, and their temporal interests second.

E. J. Waggoner, Present Truth, UK, November 28, 1895

The tithing system did not originate with the Levitical ordinances. When God "preached before the Gospel unto Abraham" He must have taught him the Divine plan by which men were to recognise the fact that all comes from the Lord; for Abraham the Father of the Faithful gave the tithe to Melchisedec, and Jacob, as of the seed of Abraham, devoted the tenth unto the Lord. Even the Levites paid tithes to the Melchisedec priesthood. "Levi also, who receiveth tithes, paid tithes in Abraham. For He was yet in the loins of his father, when Melchisedec met him." Hebrews 7:9, 10.

1914 Stephan N Haskell, The Cross and Its Shadow, pg. 242, 243

The Feast of Tabernacles followed the day of atonement, which meets its antitype in the judgment; hence must typify an event which comes after the close of the judgment. When Christ leaves the heavenly sanctuary, it will be but a short time until He comes to the earth to gather His people. Then He will take them to heaven, where they will behold the glory He had with the Father before the world was. For one thousand years the saints will reign with Christ in heaven before they return to their eternal home, this earth, freed from every curse. The New Jerusalem with its gates of pearl and streets of gold, will be the metropolis of the glorious abode of the redeemed. The beauties of the new earth are such that the redeemed in heaven, surrounded by the glories of the throne of the Eternal, will look forward with joyful anticipation to the time when they shall "reign on the earth."

DANIEL CHAPTER 8

Eugene W. Farnsworth, "A Personal Testimony," Divine Healing, Review and Herald Publishing Association, June 24, 1927

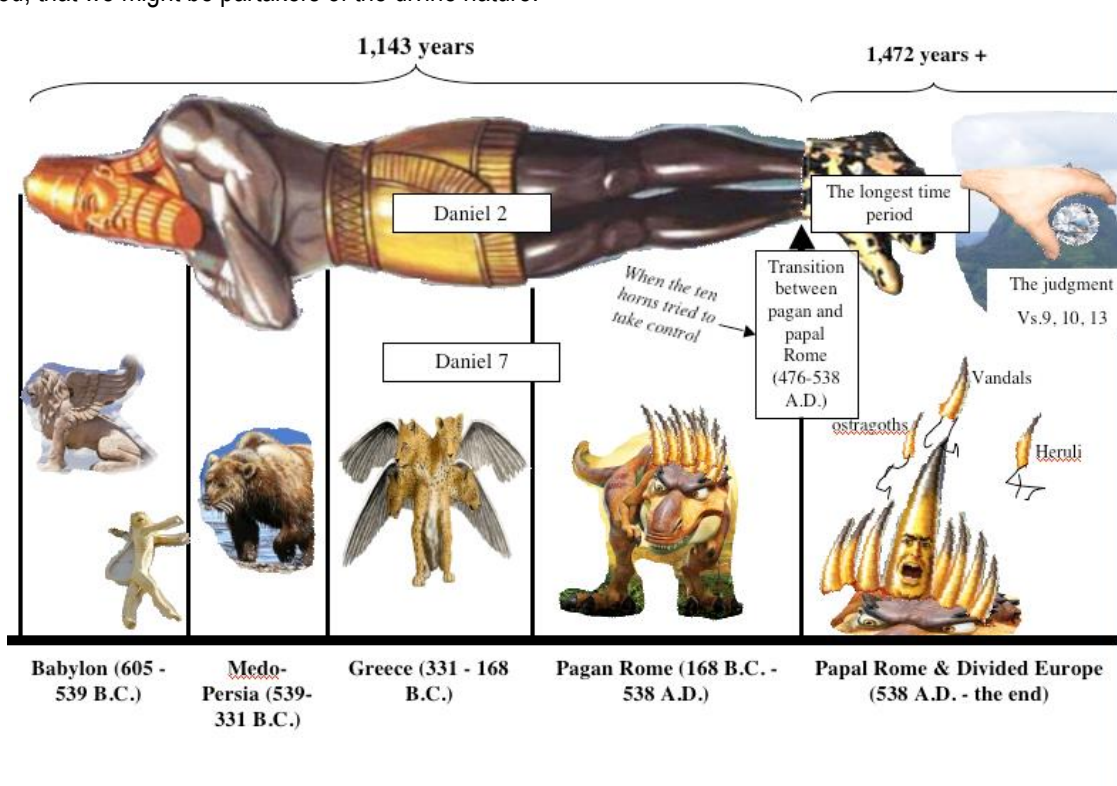

It means something more than simply blotting out a record up in heaven. It means blotting out of a man's mind the nightmare of sin, so that he will never remember it any more. That is what God is going to do for His blessed children, brethren, for all eternity, very soon.

Ellen G White, Review & Herald, May 14, 1908

Never was there a time when Christian men and women, in all walks of life, were in so great need of clear spiritual eyesight as now. It is not safe to lose sight of Christ for one moment. His followers must pray, and believe, and love him fervently. A very thorough work must be done in cleansing the soul-temple from its natural depravity. The Christian must be wide-awake to resist the in creeping of a spirit of licentiousness among those who claim to be sanctified. When our hearts are clean, washed, and made white by the blood of the Lamb, the work will go forward in our experience that was outlined in the wonderful prayer of Christ: "For their sakes I sanctify myself, that they also might be sanctified through the truth."

Alonzo T. Jones, General Conference Bulletin, February 25, 1895

Who is learning the meekness and lowliness of the pattern? Who is striving earnestly to master self? Who is lifting his cross and following Jesus? Who is wrestling against self-conceit? Who is setting himself in good earnest and with all his energies to overcome Satanic envyings, jealousies, evil-surmisings, and lasciviousness, cleansing the soul-temple from all defilements, and opening the door of the heart for Jesus to come in? Would that these words might have that impression on the mind that all who read them might cultivate the grace of humility, be self-denying, more disposed to esteem others better than themselves, having the mind and spirit of Christ to bear one another's burdens. O, that we might write deeply on our hearts, as we contemplate the great condescension and humiliation to which the Son of God descended, that we might be partakers of the divine nature.

DANIEL CHAPTER 8

What Happened in A.D. 508?

Most history books say very little about the year 508. Yet one significant event stands out.

"In Europe, one of the major events that year was the conclusion of the war between Clovis, king of the Franks (later France), and the Visigoths, whom he defeated and pushed into Spain." William H. Shea, Bible Amplifier - Daniel 7-12, p. 220.

Before we discuss the year 508 further, we must go back to the year 496. In that year Clovis, king of the Salian or Merovingian Franks, became the first of the pagan barbarians to adopt Catholicism. The Anglo-Saxons were still pagan, but all the other Germanic kingdoms had accepted the Arian form of Christianity. In the conversion of Clovis, the Catholic Church acquired a champion upon whose military might would hang the theological future of Europe.

"With the conversion of Clovis, there was at least one barbarian leader with whom the Bishop of Rome could negotiate as with a faithful son of the Church. It is from the orthodox Gregory of Tours that most of our knowledge of Clovis and his successors is derived. In Gregory's famous History of the Franks, the cruel and unscrupulous king appears as God's chosen instrument for the extension of the Catholic faith. Certainly Clovis quickly learned to combine his own interests with those of the Church, and the alliance between the pope and the Frankish kings was destined to have a great influence upon the history of western Europe." James Harvey Robinson, An Introduction to the History of Western Europe, pp. 35, 36.

"It is evident, from the language of Gregory of Tours, that this conflict between the Franks and the Visigoths was regarded by the orthodox party of his own and preceding ages as a religious war, on which, humanly speaking, the prevalence of the Catholic or the Arian creed in western Europe depended." Walter Copland Perry, The Franks, from their first appearance in history to the death of King Pepin, p. 85.

It is necessary at this point to clarify what was the so-called "Arianism" which was held by the Goths and the other Germanic peoples.

"Although the Goths refused to believe as the church of Rome did, and as a consequence have been branded as Arians, Romanism actually meant little to them. In fact, it meant little to Ulfilas, their great leader. The Goths refused to go along with the mounting innovations being introduced into the church of the caesars, which church quickly branded any competitor as Arian." Benjamin Wilkinson, Truth Triumphant, p. 141.

"Since his ancestors were from Asia Minor (the province where the apostle Peter had been especially instructed by God to plant the gospel), Ulfilas was undoubtedly influenced by the doctrines of the apostle to the Jews; and he rejected the liberal and unscriptural teachings which had flooded many western churches. He was a believer in the divine revelation of the Old Testament, as well as that of the New Testament. He impressed upon the Gothic people a simple, democratic Christianity. Like Patrick and Columba, he apparently kept the seventh day as the Sabbath." Ibid., p. 143.

In actuality, by the year 508, it had been more than a century since the term "Arian" meant a follower of Arius. At this point "Arian" simply meant "non-trinitarian."

So the year 508 brings us to a showdown between Trinitarianism and non-Trinitarianism.

DANIEL CHAPTER 8

"For the first time the diffusion of belief in the nature of the Godhead became the avowed pretext for the invasion of a neighboring territory." Henry Hart Milman, History of Latin Christianity, p.353.

It was in the year 507 that Clovis and his Frankish army met the army of the Visigoths under their king, Alaric II. Alaric, realizing his weakness, tried to delay the confrontation, hoping help would come from Theodoric, king of the Ostrogoths. But no help came, and soon the Visigoths were in flight, and Alaric was slain.

"The victorious Franks pursued them as far as Bordeaux, where Clovis passed the winter, while Theoderic, his son, was overrunning Auvergne, Quincy, and Rovergne. The Goths, whose new king was a minor, made no further resistance; and in the following year the Salian chief took possession of the royal treasure at Toulouse. He also took the town of Angouleme." Walter C. Perry, The Franks, p. 87.

"A. D. 508. A short time after these events, Clovis received the titles and dignity of Roman Patricius and Consul from the Greek Emperor Anastasius." Walter C. Perry, The Franks, p. 88.

"In 508 Clovis received at Tours the insignia of the consulship from the eastern emperor Anastasius." Encyclopaedia Britannica, 11th ed., art. "Clovis," Vol. VI, p. 563.

Historians who give only brief treatment to this war generally focus on the year 507, during which Alaric was killed. Yet, as the above references correctly indicate, the Franks continued their conquest of Visigothic territory until well into the year 508. The conclusion of the war, and the imperial recognition of it, occurred in the year 508.

"Nor was his a temporary conquest. The kingdom of the West Goths and the Burgundians had become the kingdom of the Franks. The invaders had at length arrived, who were to remain. It was decided that the Franks, and not the Goths, were to direct the future destinies of Gaul and Germany, and that the Catholic faith, and not Arianism, was to be the religion of these great realms." Richard W. Church, The Beginning of the Middle Ages, pp. 38, 39.

"Thus in A.D. 508 terminated united resistance to the development of the papacy. The question of supremacy between Frank and Goth, between the Catholic and Arian religions, had then been settled in favor of the Catholics." Daniel and the Revelation, 1944 ed., p. 330.

"Thus when Clovis and the Franks defeated the Arian Visigoths and drove them into Spain, it was also a theological victory for the bishop of Rome." William H. Shea, Bible Amplifier - Daniel 7-12, p. 220.

"Thus was the bloody course of Clovis glorified by the Catholic writers, as the triumph of the orthodox doctrine of the Trinity over Arianism." A. T. Jones, The Two Republics, p. 528.

“Daily” as Defined on the 1843 Chart

Blessed are the eyes which saw the things that were seen in 1843 and 1844 (21 MR 437)

Dan 12:12 1335+508= 1843/44

Vs 11- 508 to 1798 (1290 years) daily taken away. King Clovis had all kings of Europe (western Rome) give homage to the papacy; thus giving power to papacy.

Vs 12- 508 to 1843 (1335 years)

Dan 8:11 daily (paganism) taken away then papacy established.

508-538 Transition of Pagan gods in Pantheon being replaced with papal gods

*Catholic Church set up its ministry during this 30 year period
(Christ set up his ministry for 30 years, to 31 A. D.)*

508-538 Papacy setting up its power and couldn't start fully ruling until Arianism was completely removed; last Arian King, Ostrogoths, removed in 538

723BC- 538 (1260 years)- Paganism was submitting to Papalism in 508

508 AD- Dan 12:11,12 Taking away of the daily sacrifice, Daily removed in 508, not Pagan kings here, but worship of Paganism with gods in Pantheon. Sanctuary was the pantheon (pagan) temple

538 AD The Heruli, Vandals and Ostrogoths, by this time were plucked up: this is the prophetic period, for the rise of the little horn, see Dan. 7:8. Three horns plucked up, and little horn rises which is the commencement of the Papal power. The commencement of time, times and a half, or 1260 years terminating 1798. (abomination of desolation set up)

1798 AD Pope Captive

Trodding sanctuary is removing truths of God's word:

We see from Dan.viii, that it is the little horn, which succeeded the goat, or Grecian empire, that takes away the "daily;" and it is the only power brought to view after the division of Alexander's kingdom down to the time when the Sanctuary should be cleansed at the end of the 2300 days. This little horn we have in its proper place showed to be Rome taken as a unit, corresponding with the fourth kingdom of Daniel's other visions. Now it is a fact that a change did take place in the Roman power from Paganism to Papacy. Paganism from the days of the Assyrian kings down to the time of its modification into Popery, had been the daily, or as Prof. Whiting renders it, "the continual" desolation, by which Satan had stood up against the cause of Jehovah. In its priests, its altars and its sacrifices, it bore resemblance to the Levitical form of Jehovah's worship; but when the Levitical gave place to the Christian form of worship, Satan, in order to successfully oppose the work, must change also his form of opposition; hence the temples, altars and statues of Paganism are baptized into the blasphemies of Popery. {January 28, 1858 UrSe, ARSH 92.8}

But the daily. Paganism, is said in the prophecy, to have a sanctuary, and the place of its sanctuary was to be cast down. That a sanctuary is frequently connected with idolatry and heathenism, as the place of its devotion and worship, is evident from the following scriptures: Isa.xvi,12; Amos vii,9,13, margin. Eze.xxviii,18.

Concerning the sanctuary of the daily of Dan.viii, we offer the following from Apollon Hale: 3 {January 28, 1858 UrSe, ARSH 92.9}

"What can be meant by the 'sanctuary' of Paganism? Paganism, and error of every kind, have their sanctuaries, as well as truth. These are the temples or asylums consecrated to their service. Some particular and renowned temple of Paganism may, then, be supposed to be here spoken of. Which of its numerous distinguished temples may it be? One of the most magnificent specimens of classic architecture is called the Pantheon. Its name signifies the 'temple or asylum of all the gods.' The place of its location is Rome. 4 The idols of the nations conquered by the Romans were sacredly deposited in some niche or department of this temple, and in many cases became objects of worship by the Romans themselves. Could we find a temple of Paganism that was more strikingly 'his sanctuary.'" {January 28, 1858 UrSe, ARSH 92.10}

Having now ascertained that the daily is Paganism, and the transgression of desolation, or "the abomination that maketh desolate," is the Papacy, and that the especial sanctuary of Paganism was the Pantheon, and that the "place" of its location was Rome, we inquire further. {January 28, 1858 UrSe, ARSH 92.11}

1. Was Paganism "taken away" by the Roman civil power? The following statement of an important and well-known fact in the history of the church and world, we think answers to the prophecy. It refers to Constantine the first Christian emperor, and says: {January 28, 1858 UrSe, ARSH 92.12}

"His first act of government was the dispatch of an edict throughout the empire, exhorting his subjects to embrace christianity." {January 28, 1858 UrSe, ARSH 92.13}

2. Was Rome the city or place of his sanctuary, (the Pantheon,) cast down by the authority of the State? The following extract answers: {January 28, 1858 UrSe, ARSH 92.14}

"The death of the last rival of Constantine had sealed the peace of the empire. Rome was once more the undisputed queen of nations. But, in that hour of elevation and splendor, she had been raised to the edge of a precipice. Her next step was to be downward and irrecoverable. The change of the government to Constantinople still perplexes the historian. It was an act in direct repugnance to the whole course of the ancient and honorable prejudices of the Roman mind. It was the work of no luxurious Asiatic, devoted to the indulgences of eastern customs and climates, but an iron conqueror, born in the west, and contemptuous, like all Romans, of the habits of the orientals; it was the work of a keen politician, yet it was impolitic in the most palpable degree. Yet Constantine abandoned Rome, the great citadel and throne of the Caesars, for an obscure corner of Thrace, and expended the remainder of his vigorous and ambitious life in the double toil of raising a colony into the capital of his empire, and degrading the capital into the feeble honors and humiliated strength of a colony." {January 28, 1858 UrSe, ARSH 92.15}

This record from the pen of the historian, is too plain to need comment. The place of his sanctuary was cast down, says the prophecy; and after a statement of facts like the above, the most fastidious in prophetic interpretation must be satisfied of its application. {January 28, 1858 UrSe, ARSH 92.16}

Josiah Litch explains how Pagan Rome's sanctuary was "cast down":

"By him the daily;" the word sacrifice not being in the original. This term is of frequent occurrence in the book of Daniel, and it will be necessary to ascertain its true meaning. What then did the anti-christian or Papal abomination remove to make way for itself? What was it that let or hindered until he was taken out of the way? I answer, Paganism. For, although the empire was nominally Christian most of the time from the days of Constantine, yet Paganism continued to maintain itself in Rome, and Pagan sacrifices were offered there until the conversion of the Ostrogoths to Christianity, about A. D. 508, since which time we have no account of any public Pagan sacrifices being offered in the city of Rome. "The place of Paganism's sanctuary" was then cast down, and in its place a new system of idolatry was set up, viz., the worship of saints and images. So that these Pagan conquerors, when they embraced the Christian religion, only exchanged one system of idolatry for another. But by the fall of Paganism, the way began to open for the establishment of the Papal pretensions.

"An host was given him against the daily sacrifice, by reason of transgression." The energies of the church were directed by the aspiring pontiffs against Pagan institutions, and to bring the Pagans over to the Christian faith.

"And it cast down truth to the ground, and it practised and prospered." The Papal power trampled on the word of God, corrupted all the doctrines of the gospel, imposed on men's consciences burdens, heavy and intolerable to be borne; persecuted and put to death all who would not submit to the yoke. Thus far the prophetic emblems. And from them we learn that the little horn in this vision is the same as in the former, the Papal power. And from the 25th verse, we learn that he is to have the same end. "He shall stand up against the Prince of princes; but he shall be broken without hand." He shall be destroyed without human intervention, by Divine power. He shall be slain and given to the burning flame. He shall be destroyed by the brightness of the Lord's coming, etc. {1841 JoL, APEC 81}

Transgression of desolation:

While the prophet was watching this little horn persecuting the people of God on the earth, his attention was arrested by a conversation between two heavenly beings, which he records, as follows: "Then I heard one saint speaking, and another saint said unto the Numberer of secrets, or the Wonderful Numberer, which spake, How long shall be the vision concerning the daily sacrifice, and the transgression of desolation, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trodden under foot? And He [the Wonderful Numberer, the Prince of hosts] said unto me, Unto two thousand and three hundred days; then shall the sanctuary be cleansed." 5 Daniel did not understand the vision, and One having authority over the heavenly forces commissioned the angel Gabriel to make him understand it. Gabriel then gave the following brief explanation: {1914 SNH, CIS 189.1}

DANIEL CHAPTER 8

"The ram which thou sawest having two horns are the kings of Media and Persia, and the rough goat is the king of Grecia: and the great horn that is between his eyes is the first king [Alexander the Great]." {1914 SNH, CIS 190.1}

He then said that the four kingdoms into which Grecia would be divided, represented by the four horns, would not be as strong as Grecia, but that the kingdom represented by the little horn; viz., the Roman kingdom, which grew out of one of the four horns would destroy the people of God, and would even stand up against the Prince of princes Himself when He should come to the earth. This last view was more than Daniel could endure. When he saw that this power would even take the life of the Prince of princes, he fainted; and when Gabriel said, "The vision of the evening and the morning which was told is true," he found it was useless to proceed, as Daniel was not able to comprehend. 6 {1914 SNH, CIS 190.2}

Daniel was sick for some days, but soon began to pray for a full explanation of the vision. We have his prayer recorded; it is not long. When he began to pray, God in heaven commissioned Gabriel to go and answer the prophet's prayer, and before he had finished praying the angel touched him. 7 Heaven and earth are brought very near together by the prayer of faith. The one who holds on by simple faith until an answer is sent from heaven, is beloved by the Lord. 8 {1914 SNH, CIS 190.3}

Gabriel assured Daniel that he was come to give him "skill and understanding," and told him to "consider the vision." All had been made plain except the question asked the "Wonderful Numberer," and His reply. All heaven is interested in the work of God on the earth, and it was not idle curiosity but intense interest which prompted the question, "How long shall be the vision concerning the daily sacrifice, and the transgression of desolation, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trodden under foot?" The word "sacrifice" is given in italics in the authorized version of the Bible, showing that it "was supplied by man's wisdom, and does not belong to the text." {1914 SNH, CIS 191.1}

"From a further study of the Scriptures, I concluded that the seven times of Gentile supremacy must commence when the Jews ceased to be an independent nation, at the captivity of Manasseh, which the best chronologers assigned to B. C. 677; that the 2300 days commenced with the seventy weeks, which the best chronologers dated from B. C. 457; and that the 1335 days, commencing with the taking away of the daily, and the setting up of the abomination that maketh desolate, Dan.12:11, were to be dated from the setting up of the Papal supremacy, after the taking away of Pagan abominations, and which, according to the best historians I could consult, should be dated from about A. D. 508. Reckoning all these prophetic periods from the several dates assigned by the best chronologers for the events from which they should evidently be reckoned, they would all terminate together, about A. D. 1843. I was thus brought, in 1818, at the close of my two years' study of the Scriptures, to the solemn conclusion, that in about twenty-five years from that time all the affairs of our present state would be wound up; that all its pride and power, pomp and vanity, wickedness and oppression, would come to an end; and that, in the place of the kingdoms of this world, the peaceful and long-desired kingdom of the Messiah would be established under the whole heaven; that, in about twenty-five years, the glory of the Lord would be revealed, and all flesh see it together, - the desert bud and blossom as the rose, the fir-tree come up instead of the thorn, and instead of the briar the myrtle-tree, - the curse be removed from off the earth, death be destroyed, reward be given to the servants of God, the prophets and saints, and them who fear his name, and those be destroyed that destroy the earth. {1853 SB, MWM 76.1}

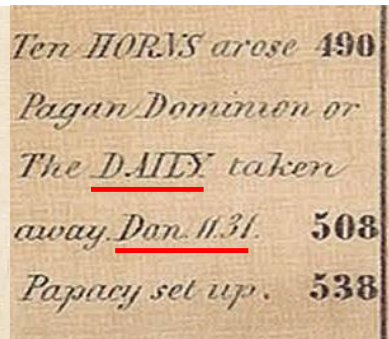

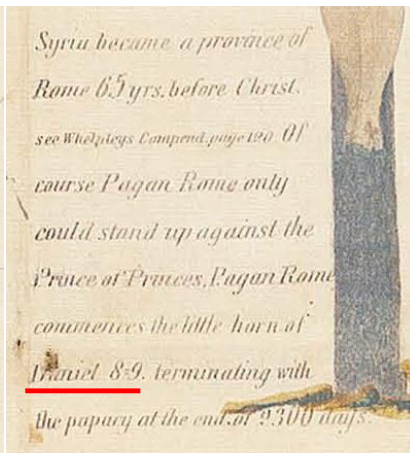

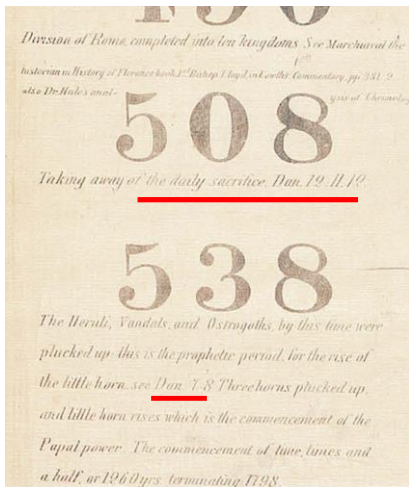

How leaders treat flock:

Many of those to whom the people look for instruction are not leading their flocks to the pure water of life. If by reading the Word one is awakened to search for truth, if by seeking to know what the Scriptures teach, he shows that he would become a wise householder, he is charged with doing great mischief. He sees the truth, not as the ministers have declared it, but as Christ has presented it in the Old and New Testaments, and as a faithful steward he tells those around him; for he would have them share with him the message of grace. But how is he treated by the religious teachers?—Just as Christ was treated by the Jewish leaders. He is held up to ridicule. The ministers denounce him from the pulpit, declaring that he is causing division in the churches. Eternal interests are at stake, but those who ought to receive the light with rejoicing, fight against the Word of God as dangerous. They do not say to those they think are misled: "Come, let us examine this subject together. If you have received light, give it to us; for we need every ray of light that is shining from the Word of God. Our souls will be imperiled if we entertain and teach error." {ST March 1, 1899, par. 5}

Their faith was greatly strengthened by the direct and forcible application of those scriptures which set forth a tarrying time. As early as 1842, the Spirit of God had moved upon Charles Fitch to devise the prophetic chart, which was generally regarded by Adventists as a fulfillment of the command given by the prophet Habakkuk, "to write the vision and make it plain upon tables." No one, however, then saw the tarrying time, which was brought to view in the same prophecy. After the disappointment, the full meaning of this scripture became apparent. Thus speaks the prophet: "Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it. For the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not tarry." [Habakkuk 2:2, 3.] {4SP 241.2} 1884 (re: 1843 chart)

God showed me the necessity of getting out a chart. I saw it was needed and that the truth made plain upon tables would affect much and would cause souls to come to the knowledge of the truth. "--Letter 26, 1850, p. 1. GOAT HEAD ON BROTHER SIMPSON'S CHART:
LITTLE HORN COMING OUT OF MACEDONIA

The interest that Brother Simpson has aroused is a remarkable one. Many are accepting the truth and are doing all they can to help in the advancement of the truth. Brother Simpson presents the truth just as it was presented in past years. He has a system of charts that is the most perfect thing of its kind that I have ever seen. At his request I had a long conversation with him, and I know that he is sound on every point of our faith and that the power of God is with him. {Lt311-1904.13}
I wish that there were one hundred where there is one awakened to proclaim the last message to be given to our world. The people are hungry, starving for Bible truth. {Lt311-1904.14}
Brother Simpson makes clear and plain the positions that we have held for so many years. He has portions of his discourses printed, and these leaflets are widely distributed in the city of Los Angeles. Those who have recently accepted the truth have been heartily united in helping to sustain this work, which is self-supporting, and so far, means has come in for all the notices and leaflets that have been sent out. {Lt311-1904.15}

He believes straight present truth. There is not one thread of spiritualistic science which would take the world in its deceivings. It is solemn, serious truth which is before the people, the truth of the first, second, and third angels' messages, linking Daniel and Revelation together. And the grasp he has of the people is marvelous. The Lord has put His Spirit into the mind, heart, and soul of Brother Simpson. He is firm upon the testimonies. This work should be taken up in every city now without delay. {Lt351-1905.10}

DANIEL CHAPTER 8

Hab 2:1-4 I will stand upon my watch, and set me upon the tower, and will watch to see what he will say unto me, and what I shall answer when I am reproved [argued with]. And the LORD answered me, and said, Write the vision, and make [it] plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it. For the vision [is] yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not tarry. Behold, his soul [which] is lifted up is not upright in him: but the just shall live by his faith.

USED BY EVANGELIST WM. SIMPSON

Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it. —HABAKKUK 2:2

The Center For Adventist Research Andrews University wrote an article about Brother Simpson and states his tag line for evangelistic meetings was Habakkuk 2:2! Simpson taught everything on the Tables of Habakkuk (charts), which would also include the 5th and 6th trumpets, King of North \(Turkey\), the "Daily"-paganism, & etc. as depicted on the 1843 and 1850 charts!

"Simpson took the Habakkuk 2:2 bible text as his tag line "Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it." His special emphasis on prophecy and his desire to make it easy for people to understand kept him innovating methods to reach people with the prophetic message. He was an effective evangelist that drew large crowds. He used innovative means for marketing his meetings."

Amazing statement from Sister White regarding the Old Testament Apocrypha:

"All, all who keep the commandments of God, will enter in through the gates into the city and have right to the tree of life and ever be in the presence of that lovely Jesus whose countenance shines brighter than the sun at noon day. I then saw the word of God pure and unadulterated, and that we must answer for the way we received the truth proclaimed from that word. I saw that it had been a hammer to break the flinty heart in pieces, and a fire to consume the dross and tin, that the heart might be pure and holy. I saw that the Apocrypha was the hidden book, and that the wise of these last days should understand it. I saw that the Bible was the standard book that will judge us at the last day. I saw that heaven would be cheap enough, and that nothing was too dear to sacrifice for Jesus, and that we must give all to enter the kingdom."--Manuscript 4, 1850, (A copy of E. G. “Whereof when Jonathan had knowledge, he sent ambassadors unto him, to the end he should make peace with him, and deliver them the prisoners. Which thing he accepted, and did according to his demands, and swore unto him that he would never do him harm all the days of his life.” {1 Ma 9:70}

DANIEL CHAPTER 8

THE LITTLE HORN WAS NOT ANTIOCHUS

1843 CHART

PUBLISHED BY J. V. HINES, 14 DEVONSHIRE ST.
B. W. Thayer & Co. Lithography Boston.

164 Death of Antiochus Epiphanes, who of course, stood not up against the Prince of Princes, as he had been 164 yrs. dead before the Prince of Princes was born.

158 Time of the league, between the Jews and Romans. 158 yrs. before Christ 1st Mac. 9th chap. 70-71 verses. Josephus Antiquities 1.13 c. 2. Daniel 11:23 and after the league with him he shall work deceitfully.

1. The four kingdoms into which the dominion of Alexander was divided, are symbolized by the four horns of the goat. Now this Antiochus was but one of the twenty-five kings that constituted the Syrian horn. How, then, could he, at the same time, be another remarkable horn? {1872 JNA, S23D 11.3}

2. The ram, according to this vision, became great; the goat waxed very great; but the little horn became exceeding great. How absurd and ludicrous is the following application of this comparison: {1872 JNA, S23D 11.4}

*Great. Very Great. Exceeding Great. {1872 JNA, S23D 12.1}

Persia. GRECIA. A N T I O C H U S. {1872 JNA, S23D 12.2}

How easy and natural is the following: {1872 JNA, S23D 12.3}

*Great. Very Great. Exceeding Great. {1872 JNA, S23D 12.4}

Persia. GRECIA. ROME. {1872 JNA, S23D 12.5}

3. The Medo-Persian Empire is simply called great. Verse 4. The Bible informs us that it extended "from India even unto Ethiopia, over an hundred seven and twenty provinces." Esth. 1:1. This was succeeded by the Grecian power, which is called VERY GREAT. Verse 8. Then comes the power in question which is called E X C E E D I N G G R E A T. Verse 9. Was Antiochus exceeding great when compared with Alexander, the conqueror of the world? Let an item from the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge answer: {1872 JNA, S23D 12.6}

"Finding his resources exhausted, he resolved to go into Persia, to levy tributes and collect large sums which he had agreed to pay to the Romans". {1872 JNA, S23D 12.7}

Surely we need not question which was exceeding great, the Roman power which exacted the tribute, or Antiochus who was compelled to pay it. {1872 JNA, S23D 12.8}

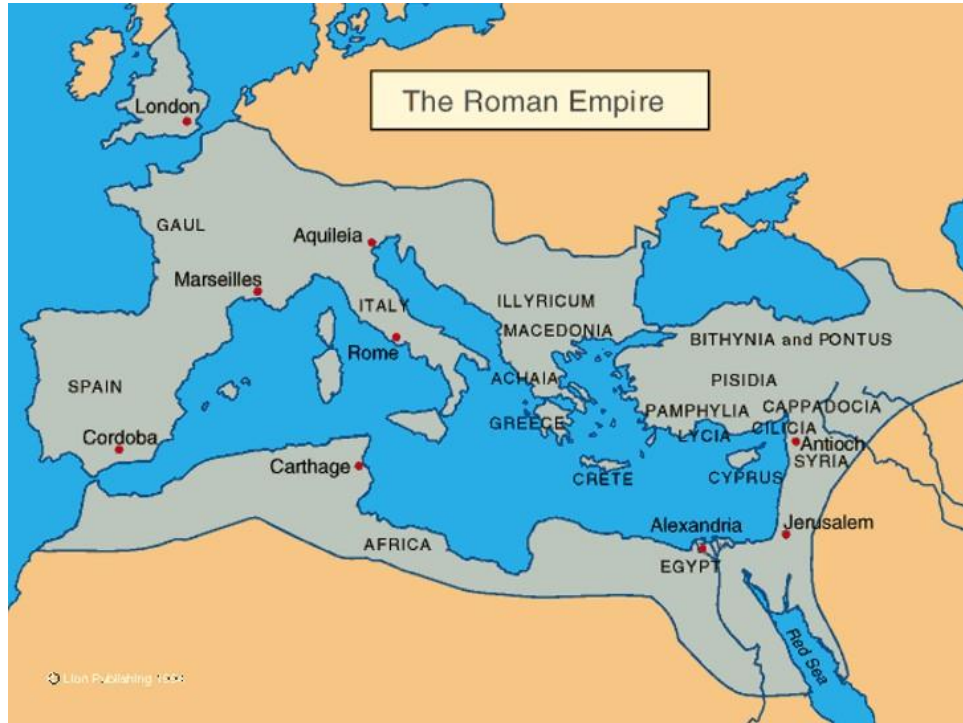

4. The power in question was "little" at first, but it waxed, or grew, "exceeding great toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the pleasant land". What can this describe but the conquering marches of a mighty power? Rome was almost directly north-west from Jerusalem, and its conquests in Asia and Africa were, of course, toward the east and south; but where were Antiochus' conquests? He came into possession of a kingdom already established, and Sir Isaac Newton says, "He did not enlarge it." {1872 JNA, S23D 12.9}

5. Out of many reasons that might be added to the above, we named but one. This power was to stand up against the Prince of princes. Verse 25. The Prince of princes is Jesus Christ. Rev. 1:5; 17:14; 19:16. But Antiochus died 164 years before our Lord was born. It is settled, therefore, that another power is the subject of this prophecy. The following facts demonstrate that {1872 JNA, S23D 12.10}

ROME IS THE POWER IN QUESTION

1. This power was to come forth from one of the four kingdoms of Alexander's empire. Let us remember that nations are not brought into prophecy, till somehow connected with the people of God. Rome had been in existence many years before it was noticed in prophecy; and Rome had made Macedon, one of the four horns of the Grecian goat, a part of itself B.C. 168, about ten years before its first connection with the people of God. See 1 Mac. 8. So that Rome could as truly be said to be "out of one of them," as the ten horns of the fourth beast in the seventh chapter, could be said to come out of that beast, when they were ten kingdoms set up by the conquerors of Rome. {1872 JNA, S23D 13.1}

2. It was to wax exceeding great toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the pleasant land. (Palestine. Ps. 106:24; Zech. 7:14.) This was true of Rome in particular. Witness its conquests in Africa and Asia, and its overthrow of the place and nation of the Jews. John 11:48. {1872 JNA, S23D 13.2}

3. It was to cast down of the host and of the stars. This is predicted respecting the dragon. Rev. 12:3, 4. All admit that the dragon was Rome. Who can fail to see their identity? {1872 JNA, S23D 13.3}

4. Rome was emphatically a king of fierce countenance, and one that did understand dark sentences. Moses used similar language when, as all agree, he predicted the Roman power. Deut. 28:49, 50. {1872 JNA, S23D 13.4}

5. Rome did destroy wonderfully. Witness its overthrow of all opposing powers. {1872 JNA, S23D 14.1}

6. Rome has destroyed more of "the mighty and the holy people," than all other persecuting powers combined. From fifty to one hundred millions of the church have been slain by it. {1872 JNA, S23D 14.2}

7. Rome did stand up against the Prince of princes. The Roman power nailed Jesus Christ to the cross. Acts 4:26, 27; Matt. 27:2; Rev. 12:4. {1872 JNA, S23D 14.3}

8. This power is to "be broken without hand." How clear the reference to the stone "cut out without hand" that smote the image. Dan. 2:34. Its destruction then does not take place until the final overthrow of earthly power. These facts are conclusive proof that Rome is the subject of this prophecy. For an extended notice, see Advent Library, No. 33. {1872 JNA, S23D 14.4}

The field of vision, then, is the empires of Persia, Greece, and Rome. {1872 JNA, S23D 14.5}

That part of the vision that now engages our attention is the time - the reckoning of the 2300 days. {1872 JNA, S23D 14.6}

The idols of the nations conquered by the Romans were sacredly deposited in some niche or apartment of this temple, and in many cases became objects of worship by the Romans themselves. Could we find a temple of Paganism that was more strikingly "his sanctuary?" Was Rome, the city or place of the Pantheon, "cast down by" the authority of the state? DANIEL CHAPTER 8

"The death of the last rival of Constantine had scaled the peace of the empire. Rome was once more the undisputed queen of nations. But, in that hour of elevation and splendor, she had been raised to the edge of a precipice. Her next step was to be downwards and irrecoverable. The change of the government to Constantinople still perplexes the historian. It was an act in direct repugnance to the whole course of the ancient and honorable prejudices of the Roman mind. It was the work of no luxurious Asiatic, devoted to the indulgences of eastern customs and climates, but of an iron conqueror, born in the west, and contemptuous, like all Romans, of the habits of the orientals; it was the work of a keen politician, yet it was impolitic in the most palpable degree. Yet Constantine abandoned Rome, the great citadel and throne of the Caesars, for an obscure corner of Thrace, and expended the remainder of his vigorous and ambitious life in the double toil of raising a colony into the capital of his empire, and degrading the capital into the feeble honors and humiliated strength of a colony." Croly, p. 207-8. {1843 ApH, TSAM 68.4} cf. See Rev 13:2

This first outbreak in the East was followed by a still more important "rebellion," in which Vitalian, whom Gibbon styles "the champion of the Catholic faith," "depopulated Thrace, and exterminated sixty-five thousand of his fellow-Christians." {1843 ApH, TSAM 79.1}
