THE DROP-BATH.

The drop-bath is usually applied very cold. It is administered by letting water fall in single drops from a small aperture in a vessel that has been elevated a few feet. It is useful in removing swellings, corns, tumors, etc. This form of bath has been used with very great advantage in cases of complicated wounds and fractures, where it was essential that inflammation should be prevented.

The Hygienic Family Physician: A Complete Guide for the Preservation of Health, and the Treatment of the Sick without Medicine. Pg. 152 by M. G. Kellogg