

URINE, INCONTINENCE OF

This disease consists of a frequent or perpetual discharge of urine. The difficulty in retaining it is caused by the habitual use of hot drinks, medicine given to promote the secretion of urine, and alcoholic drinks.

Treatment.—Remove the cause, and follow the plan directed for constitutional treatment.