

1884 Great Controversy Table of Contents

Chapter I.

Destruction of Jerusalem.

The Siege and Overthrow Foretold by Jesus.—God’s Favor to Israel.—His Love Rejected.—Jerusalem a Symbol of the World.—The First and Second Temples Compared.—The Twofold prophecy.—Christ Warns his Followers.—The Signal for Flight.—Strength of Jerusalem’s Defenses.—Micah’s Prophecy of her Destruction.—Judgments Delayed.—God’s Mercy Despised.—Strife and Bloodshed.—Portents of Disaster.—Escape of the Christians.—The Siege by Titus.—Famine and Suffering.—Efforts to Save the Temple.—The Sanctuary in Flames.—The Temple and City Demolished.—The Inhabitants Slain or Dispersed.—A Symbol of the Future Judgment 17-38

Chapter II.

Persecution in the First Centuries.

Martyrs under Paganism.—The Catacombs a Refuge.—Faith and Steadfastness of the Christians.—A Time of Peace.—Union of Christianity and Paganism.—Revival of Persecution.— Why the Gospel Occasions Strife 39-50

Chapter III.

The Roman Church.

The Rise of the Papacy Foretold.—To whom Belongs the Charge of Heresy?—The Bible Suppressed.—Second Commandment Set Aside.—Fourth Commandment Changed.—The Early Church Honored the Sabbath.—Sunday gradually Introduced. —Finally Exalted to Pre-eminence.—Establishment of the Papacy.—Beginning of the Dark Ages.—Superstitious Forms Multiplied.—Prevalence of Iniquity.—Universal Supremacy Accorded to the Pope.—The Church Infallible.—The Pope Claims Power over Civil Rulers.—Heathen Philosophy.—Its Influence early Felt in the Church.—Papal Errors.—The Inquisition.—Popery Rules the World.—Results of Banishing the Scriptures 51-65

Chapter IV.

The Waldenses.

Christians in the Dark Ages.—Their History Unknown.—Primitive Christianity in Great Britain.—Romish Missionaries.—Churches Destroyed or Forced to Submit to Rome.—Christians in other Lands.—Churches of Piedmont Required to Bow to the Papacy.—Protesters Flee to the Mountains.—The Waldenses Possess the Bible.—Training of the Young.—Knowledge of the Scriptures.—The Church of the Alps.—The Scriptures ranscribed.—The Youth at School in Great Cities.—Missionaries in Disguise.—Extent of their Labors.—Bondage of Romanism.—The Gospel secretly Unfolded.—Crusades against the Waldenses.—The Pope’s Bull of Extermination.—Steadfastness of the Sufferers.—Seed Sown for the Reformation 66-84

Chapter V.

Early Reformers.

God’s Care for his Word.—The True Faith Revived.—“The Morning Star of the Reformation.”—Wycliffe’s Talents and Education.—His Study of the Bible.—He Opposes Rome.—Accused of Heresy.—The Papacy Weakened by Divisions.—Wycliffe Translates the Scriptures.—Priests Renounce

Romanism.—Spread of the Gospel.—Wycliffe Dies in Peace. —John Huss.—At the Council of Constance.—Burned at the Stake.—Prophetic Dream.—Jerome a Martyr.—Printing of the Scriptures.—The Slumber of Ages Broken 85-93

Chapter VI.

Luther's Separation From Rome.

Luther the Man for his Time.—Early Life.—Severe Discipline. —At the University.—Discovery of the Bible.—Conviction of Sin.—He Enters a Cloister.—The Chained Bible.—Ordination as a priest.—Called to Wittenberg.—Journey to Rome.—Abominations of Popery.—Justification by Faith.—Made Doctor of Divinity.—Pledged to Teach the Scriptures.—Rome's Traffic in the Grace of God.—Theses against Indulgences.—Luther at Augsburg.—Plots for his Destruction.—Frederick of Saxony his Protector.—Luther Excommunicated—In all Ages Truth Excites Opposition 94-118

Chapter VII.

Luther Before the Diet.

Charles V. and the Emissaries of Rome.—Demand for Luther's Execution.—The Papal Legate.—His Speech against Luther.—A Presentation of Papal Abuses.—The Reformer Summoned to Worms.—Treachery of the Papists.—Luther before the Diet.—A Victory for the Truth.—His Second Appearance.—Refusal to Retract.—His Courage and Firmness.—The Emperor's Message.—Papal Plots.—Efforts for Compromise.—Luther Adheres to the Bible.—Departure from Worms.—Condemned and Outlawed.—A Prisoner in the Wartburg.—Labors in Captivity.—Designs of Providence 119-143

Chapter VIII.

Progress of the Reformation.

Effect of Luther's Disappearance.—The Reformation Gaining Ground.—Pretended Prophets.—The Bible Set Aside.—The Reformation on the Verge of Ruin.—Luther's Return to Wittenberg.—God's Word the Standard of Faith.—Fanaticism Checked.—Its Subsequent Revival.—Revolutionary Teachings.—Strife and Bloodshed.—The Reformation Denounced.—Luther Defends the Gospel.—Translation of the Bible.—Spread of the True Faith 144-155

Chapter IX.

Protest of the Princes.

The Diet of Spires.—A Dark Day for the Reformation.—The Imperial Message.—Religious Toleration Forbidden.—The Princes Refuse to Yield Religious Liberty.—The Protest.—Principles of the Protest.—Danger of the Protestants.—Melancthon and Grynæus.—A Heaven-sent Warning.—The Diet of Augsburg.—The Protestant Confession.—Faith and Courage of the Princes.—The Confession Read before the Emperor.—A Glorious Victory.—God's Care for his Servants.—Prayer the Reformers' Strength 156-169

Chapter X.

Later Reformers.

Tyndale Translates the Bible.—Opposition to his Work.—He Flees to Germany.—Printing of the New Testament.—Introduced into England by Stealth.—Tyndale's Imprisonment and Martyrdom.—John Knox.—Latimer Defends the Bible.—Barnes and Frith.—The Riddleys and Cranmer.—Persecution by the Church of England.—Spread of the Gospel.—John Bunyan.—Baxter, Flavel, Alleine.—Results of their Labors.—Whitefield and the Wesleys.—Early Experience.—Power and Success of their Ministry.—Methodists Ridiculed and Persecuted.—John Wesley Protected by an Angel.—Refutation of Charges against Methodism.—Another Class of Reformers.—Unjustly Treated by Historians.— Carlstadt.—Testimony of John Frith.—Persecution of John Trask.—Mrs. Trask Imprisoned.—Her only Offense.—First Sabbath-keepers in America.—The Seventh-day Baptists. —Eld. J. W. Morton.—Reform Progressive 170-187

Chapter XI.

The Two Witnesses.

The Old and New Testaments the Witnesses.—In Obscurity for 1260 Years.—Rome Substitutes False Witnesses.—War upon the Bible.—Massacre of St. Bartholomew—Atheism Prevails.—French Revolution.—The Bible Exalted 188-193

Chapter XII.

God Honors the Humble.

Christians Cease to Reform.—Satan Perverts Bible Truths.—The Coming of Christ Draws Near.—The Warning to be Given.—Proclamation of the First Advent.—Priests and Rulers in Darkness.—Light Given to Humble Men. —Closing Scenes Revealed to John.—The Warning not Committed to Religious Leaders 194-201

Chapter XIII.

William Miller.

An Honest Seeker for Truth.—His Conversion.—The Bible its own Interpreter.—The Prophecies can be Understood.—Evidence of Christ's Advent Near.—Years of Study.—Opening of his Public Labors.—God Warns the World of Coming Judgments.—The Flood an Example.—The Revelation not a Sealed Book.—The World Opposes Reformers.—Luther an Illustration.—Also Whitefield and the Wesleys.—Why the Doctrine of the Second Advent is Unwelcome.—Opposition to Miller and his Work.—His Labors a Blessing to the World 202-221

Chapter XIV.

The First Angel's Message.

Fulfillment of Prophecy.—A World-wide Warning.—The Work in America.—Power of the Message.—Solemn Work of Preparation.—Opposition to the Faith.—Precious Experience.—A Disappointment.—Hypocrisy Exposed.—God Sustains his People 222-229

Chapter XV.

The Second Angel's Message.

Rejection of First Message.—Darkness that Followed.—Neglect of Light Hardens the Heart.—“Babylon is Fallen.”—A Profession of Religion Popular.—Union with the World.—False Doctrines in the Church 230-240

Chapter XVI.

The Tarrying Time.

Close of the Year 1843.—A Period of Doubt and Perplexity.—Prophecy of Habakkuk.—A Tarrying Time Brought to View.—Ezekiel's Words a Comfort.—Parable of the Ten Virgins.—Fanaticism Appears.—Influence of Unbalanced, Half-converted Persons.—Parallel in the Time of Paul, Luther, and the Wesleys.—Adventists United 241-247

Chapter XVII.

The Midnight Cry.

The Correct Time Discovered.—“Behold, the Bridegroom Cometh!”—The Message Goes with Power.—Illustration from Christ's Entry into Jerusalem.—Solemn Heart-searching.—Fanaticism Disappears.—A Holy Influence Attending the Work.—Passing of the Time.—Scoffing of the Ungodly.—Bitter Disappointment.—Similar Disappointment at the Death of Christ.—Comforting Words of Paul248-257

Chapter XVIII.

The Sanctuary.

Termination of the 2300 Days.—The Earth Supposed to be the Sanctuary.—Interpretation of Prophecy at Fault.—Computation of the Prophetic Periods Correct.—What is the Sanctuary?—Testimony of the Scriptures.—The Earthly Sanctuary a Figure of the Heavenly.—The Mosaic Service.—The Day of Atonement.—The Ministration of Christ.—The Investigative Judgment 258-267

Chapter XIX.

An Open and a Shut Door.

The Shut Door Explained.—The Saviour's Change of Ministration.—A Knowledge of his Work Essential.—Light Withdrawn from those who Reject It.—Christ still Pleads for Sinners 268-272

Chapter XX.

The Third Angel's Message.

Time of its Proclamation.—A Change in Christ's Ministration. — God's Law in the Ark.—Fourth Commandment Unchanged. —Why the Third Message is Opposed.—Symbols Explained.—The True Church.—Paganism and the Papacy.—Another Power.—Its Peaceful Rise.—Mild Profession.—Persecuting Spirit.—Sign of Rome's Authority.—A Solemn Warning.—A Sabbath Reform Foretold by Isaiah.—The Seal of God's Law.—The Sabbath Hallowed in every Age 273-286

Chapter XXI.

The Third Message Rejected.

Worldly Customs against the Truth.—The Bible the only Guide for Christians.—Adventists Reject the Message.—Conflicting Views of the Prophecies.—Time-setting an Error. —Important Admonition.—Why the Coming of Christ is Delayed. —Duty of those who Hear God's Messages 287-293

Chapter XXII.

Modern Revivals.

Their Results Unsatisfactory.—A Religion of the Imagination.—Lovers of Pleasure.—Christians in all Denominations.—Extensive Revivals in the Future.—Character of Modern Revivals.—Nature of

Conversion.—Conviction of Sin.—Faith in Christ.—Sanctification, True and False Theories.—God’s Law the Standard of Holiness.—True Sanctification Progressive.—Meekness and Humility the Fruits of the Spirit.—Sanctification Includes Temperance.—The Christian’s Privilege.—The Great Need of the Church 294-306

Chapter XXIII.

The Investigative Judgment.

Opening of the Judgment.—Christ the Advocate.—The Books of Record.—Every Case Examined.—The Last Act of Mediation.—Vastness of the Work.—The Saviour’s Plea.—Our Daily Record.—Preparation for the Judgment.—Cases of the Living soon to be Decided 307-315

Chapter XXIV.

Origin of Evil.

Sin Unexplainable.—Lucifer before his Fall.—His Wisdom and Honor.—Exaltation of Himself.—Rejection of Warnings.—Charges against Christ.—Self-justification.—Revolt and Banishment.—Spirit of Rebellion among Men.—Hatred of Reproof.—Satan Accuses God of Injustice.—The Fall of Man.—The Atonement.—Demonstration of God’s Love.—Christ’s Earthly Ministry.—Satan’s Character Unmasked.—God’s Justice Vindicated.—No Cause for Sin Exists 316-323

Chapter XXV.

Enmity Between Man and Satan.

The First Prophecy.—The Sinner in Harmony with Satan.—God’s Grace Creates Enmity.—Why the World Hated Christ.—Its Hatred of his Followers.—Why Resistance against Satan is so Feeble.—Christians Indifferent to their Danger.—Satan Works in Disguise.—His Sleepless Vigilance.—Danger of Association with the Ungodly.—Solomon an Example.—Effect of Familiarity with Sin.—The Last Conflict.—Christ the Helper of his Followers 324-330

Chapter XXVI.

Agency of Evil Spirits.

The Existence of Satan.—Testimony of the Scriptures.—The Fallen Angels.—Their Intelligence and Subtlety.—Satan’s Power over Men.—The Demoniacs of Gadara.—Number of Evil Spirits.—Christ Expels the Demons.—Object of the Miracle.—Other Illustrations.—The Spirit of Divination.—Why Satan Denies his Existence.—The Ungodly Exposed to Evil Angels.—God Protects his People 331-336

Chapter XXVII.

The Snares of Satan.

Counsel to his Angels.—Hold Minds in Darkness.—Separate Men from Christ.—Foster Worldliness and Pride.—Encourage Covetousness.—Introduce False Teachers.—Excite Selfishness and Enmity.—How Satan’s Plans are Executed.—His Presence in Religious Assemblies.—He Prevents Men from Listening to the Word of God.—Helpers of Satan.—Accusers of the Brethren.—Fanciful Interpretations of Scripture.—Mistaken Liberality.—“Science Falsely so Called.”—Deceptive Doctrines.—Spiritualism.—Disbelief in Pre-existence of Christ.—Non-existence of Satan.—Coming of Christ at Death.—Miracles Impossible.—Rejection of Truth.—Danger of Cherishing Doubt.—Uses of Temptation 337-350

Chapter XXVIII.

The First Great Deception.

The Tempter in Eden.—A Plan for Man’s Overthrow.—God’s Warning Disbelieved.—Death the Penalty of Transgression.—Immortality the Gift of God.—Satan’s Deception.—Life in Disobedience.—Doctrine of Eternal Torment Introduced.—God’s Character Misrepresented.—Cruelty is Satanic.—God Takes no Delight in Torture.—Theory of Eternal Torment Revolting.—A Cause of Infidelity.—Universalism the Opposite Error.—A Universalist Sermon.—The Fate of Amnon.—Wresting of the Scriptures.—Salvation is Conditional.—The Wicked could not Enjoy Heaven.—God’s Mercy in their Destruction.—Consciousness of the Dead a Fallacy.—What the Bible Teaches.—The Judgment and the Resurrection 351-369

Chapter XXIX.

Spiritualism.

Natural Immortality its Foundation.—Materialization a Counterfeit.—Heresies Taught by Spirits.—Spiritual Manifestations not the Result of Trickery.—A Revival of Ancient Witchcraft.—Adapted to Deceive all Classes.—Refined and Intellectual Aspects.—Grosser Forms of Spiritualism.—No Distinction between Righteousness and Sin.—The Bible Rejected.—The Hour of Temptation.—The Refuge of Lies to be Swept Away..... 370-379

Chapter XXX.

Character and Aims of the Papacy.

Romanism Gaining Favor.—Her Former Cruelty Excused. —The Claim of Infallibility.—True Christians in Roman Church.—Catholicism Opposed to the Gospel.—Her Power Increasing in this Country.—A Cause of Apprehension.—Pomp and Splendor of her Worship.—The Roman and the Jewish Church Compared. —God’s Character Misrepresented.—Contrast between Christ and the Pope.—The Romish Church Unchanged.—Protestants Blinded by False Charity. —The Secret of Rome’s Power.—How an Age of Intellectual Light is Favorable to her Success.—Protestants Following in the Steps of Papists.—The Sunday Movement.—How Sunday Came first to be Observed.—First Sunday Law a Heathen Statute.—The Term “Lord’s Day.”—Measures for Sunday Enforcement.—Lack of Scriptural Authority.—The Roll from Heaven.—A Daring Forgery.—Pretended Miracles.—A Remarkable Confession.—The Church of Abyssinia.—Rome’s Enmity toward the True Sabbath.—History of the Past to be Repeated. —Popery Strengthening her Forces. —Purpose of the Romanists 380-397

Chapter XXXI.

The Coming Conflict.

God’s Favor to this Country.—His Blessings Repaid with Ingratitude.—The Impending Conflict.—Agencies to Combine against Righteousness and Truth.—Prevalence of Skepticism.—Growing Contempt for the Scriptures.—Philosophical Idolatry.—Results of Setting aside God’s Law.—Temperance Reform and the Sunday Movement.—Spiritualism Changing its Form.—Accepted by Papists and Protestants.—Satan’s Power to Control the Elements.—Terrible Calamities.—God’s People Accused as Troubles of the Nation.—Liberty of Conscience Disregarded.—Romish Tyranny Revived.—Our Land in Jeopardy 398-410

Chapter XXXII.

The Scriptures a Safeguard.

Satan's Activity.—The Last Great Delusion.—The Bible the Detector of Error.—An Understanding of the Prophecies Essential.—Danger of Following Human Leaders.—The Jews an Example.—Ignorance of the Bible a Sin.—How to Understand the Scriptures.—A Humble and Teachable Spirit.—Why Theologians so often Err.—Necessity of Prayer.—Modern Infidelity.—Every Character to be Tested. — Who will Endure the Trial? 411-420

Chapter XXXIII.

The Loud Cry.

The Mighty Angel.—Application of his Message.—Light for all who Seek It.—Reformers in Past Ages.—Preaching of the Third Message.—Effect of the Warning.—Opposition Extends the Knowledge of the Truth.—Christ's Ambassadors not to Remain Silent.—God's Providence in the National Councils.—The Closing Work.—World-wide Extent.—Power and Glory.—Fruits of Missionary Efforts ... 421-430

Chapter XXXIV.

The Time of Trouble.

Christ's Ministration Closed.—God's People in Affliction and Distress.—Illustration from the Time of Jacob's Trouble.—Jacob's Night of Wrestling.—Faith and Penitence Prevail.—God cannot Excuse Evil.—His Mercy to the Penitent.—Power of Importunate Prayer.—The Prophetic Woe.—Destructive Power of Evil Angels.—False Christs.—Satan Personates the World's Redeemer.—Religious and Secular Authorities Combine against God's People.—Decree that they may be Put to Death.—The Mountains a Hiding-place.—Imprisonment and Bondage.—God does not Forsake his Servants.—The Day-and-night Cry.—Angels Guard the Righteous.—Their Appearance in Human Form.—God's Promise to his People 431-451

Chapter XXXV.

God's People Delivered.

The Wicked Unite to Destroy Them.—The Night Attack.—Supernatural Darkness.—The Rainbow of God's Glory.—Celestial Voices.—The Sun Appears at Midnight.—The Voice of God.—A Mighty Earthquake.—Warring of the Elements.—A Special Resurrection.—The Day of God.—Prophetic Portrayal. —The Star of Hope.—A Song of Trust.—Tables of the Decalogue Revealed in the Heavens.—The Everlasting Covenant. —God's People Glorified.—“The Sign of the Son of Man.”—Christ's Coming in Glory.—Beheld by them that Pierced Him.—The Wicked Flee to Rocks and Mountains. — The Righteous Dead Called Forth. —Ascent to the City of God.—The Reward of the Righteous. — Meeting of the Two Adams.—Eden Restored 452-469

Chapter XXXVI.

Desolation of the Earth.

God's Judgments upon the Wicked.—Their Treasures Swept Away.—False Teachers Exposed.—Fury of the Multitudes.—Strife and Carnage.—The Earth Made Waste.—The Prison-house of Satan.—A Work of Judgment 470-475

Chapter XXXVII.

The Controversy Ended.

Christ's Return to the Earth.—The Wicked Dead Called Forth.—Descent of the New Jerusalem.—Satan's Last Struggle for the Supremacy.—He Marshals his Forces.—A Mighty Host.—The Holy City Surrounded.—Christ "upon the Throne of his Glory."—The Subjects of his Kingdom.—The Final Coronation.—Judgment of the Wicked.—The Books of Record Opened.—A Panoramic Portrayal.—The Scenes of Redemption. —The Cross of Calvary.—The Results of Rebellion.—Satan Acknowledges God's Justice.—His Persistence in Rebellion.—The Fire of Destruction.—Satan and his Hosts Consumed.—The Earth Renewed.—The Home of the Saved.—The Universal Anthem476-492